GAME #11

CLEMSON AND N.C. STATE WILL SQUARE OFF FOR THE 42ND CONSECUTIVE SEASON TODAY.

TODAY'S GAME

by Tim Bourret

THE TIGERS WILL ATTEMPT TO WIN THEIR SEVENTH REGULAR-SEASON ACC GAME FOR THE FIRST TIME SINCE 1983.

Tigers Looking For 10th Victory

Clemson will be looking to reach the 10-win mark today. The Tigers are looking for their second consecutive 10-win season, something the program has not done since the 1987-90 era, when it had four consecutive 10-win seasons (all 10-2 records under Head Coach Danny Ford). Last year, Clemson had a 10-4 record, including the ACC Championship.

A victory today would be the ninth season of at least 10 wins for the Clemson program. The first double-digit-victory season came in 1948, when Frank Howard's squad had a perfect 11-0 record, including a Gator Bowl victory over Missouri. The Tigers also won the Southern Conference Championship that season under Howard's leadership.

The Clemson record for wins in a season is 12, set by the 1981 team. That team was 11-0 in the regular season, then won the Orange Bowl against #4 Nebraska to win the National Championship.

A win today would give Clemson 10 regular-season wins for the first time since 1981. The Tigers have won at least 10 games in the regular season three times (1948,78,81). This team can join some exclusive company.

Each of the last five times Clemson has won 10 games, the 10th victory came in postseason play, either in a bowl game or the ACC Championship game.

Clemson's 10-Win Seasons

Year	Head Coach(es)	W-L	Bowl	Opponent	W-L
1948	Frank Howard	11-0	Gator	Missouri	W
1978	Charley Pell, Danny Ford	11-1	Gator	Ohio State	W
1981	Danny Ford	12-0	Orange	Nebraska	W
1987	Danny Ford	10-2	Citrus	Penn State	W
1988	Danny Ford	10-2	Citrus	Oklahoma	W
1989	Danny Ford	10-2	Gator	West Virginia	W
1990	Ken Hatfield	10-2	Hall of Fame	Illinois	W
2011	Dabo Swinney	10-4	Orange	West Virginia	L

Tigers Playing For a Trophy

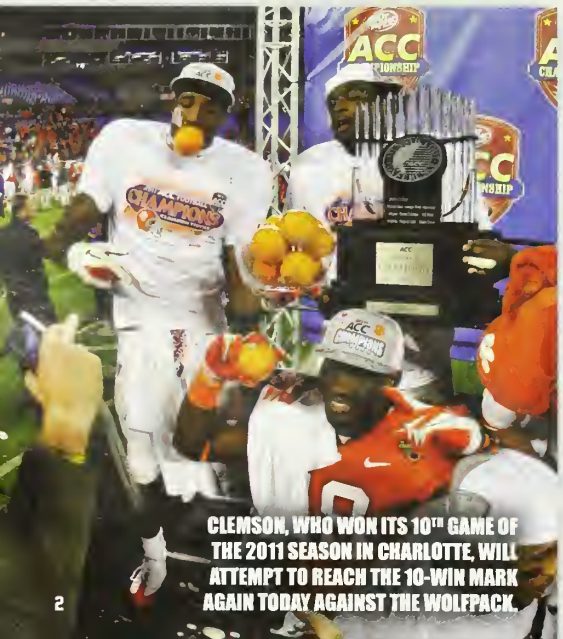
Clemson will play for a trophy today. While Florida State holds the tiebreaker against Clemson when it comes to reaching the ACC Championship game by virtue of its win over the Tigers in Tallahassee on September 22, a Clemson victory over N.C. State and a Florida State win at Maryland would leave the Tigers and Seminoles tied at the top of the Atlantic Division with identical 7-1 records. A Clemson win and a Florida State loss would still make the Tigers the outright champion.

However, even if Clemson and Florida State end up tied in the standings, both schools will get a trophy as Atlantic Division champions. The conference policy stipulates that if two teams are tied atop the division, both schools are considered division champions. Tiebreaker rules are used to establish who goes to the championship contest, but both are considered division champions and both will receive trophies.

That would make Clemson ACC Atlantic Division Champions three of the last four years, quite an accomplishment for this senior class.

A victory today would also give Clemson seven ACC wins in the regular season. That would tie the school record for ACC wins in a regular season. The only other Tiger team with seven wins over ACC teams in the regular season is the 1983 team that was 7-0.

Last year's Clemson team won seven games against ACC teams, but the seventh win came in postseason play, the 38-10 win over #3 Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship game.



CLEMSON, WHO WON ITS 10TH GAME OF THE 2011 SEASON IN CHARLOTTE, WILL ATTEMPT TO REACH THE 10-WIN MARK AGAIN TODAY AGAINST THE WOLFPACK.

N.C. State Update

N.C. State enters today's game with a 6-4 overall record and 3-3 ACC mark. N.C. State is coming off a dominating 37-6 win at home over Wake Forest last weekend, a victory that made the team bowl eligible for the third consecutive year.

A win against Clemson today and a win over Boston College at home next Saturday would give Tom O'Brien's team a 5-3 record in the ACC, tied for the best mark for the program since 1994, when Clemson graduate Mike O'Cain was the head coach of a Wolfpack squad that had a 6-2 ACC record. It is interesting to point out that N.C. State is the only ACC team in either division this year with a perfect record (3-0) within its division. Clemson and Florida State are both 6-1 in the ACC, but both have a loss in the Atlantic Division.

N.C. State is led by senior quarterback Mike Glennon, who is averaging nearly 42 pass attempts a game. He has thrown 22 touchdown passes, second in the ACC to Clemson's Tajh Boyd, who has 28. Glennon is fourth in the ACC in total offense and is averaging 291.0 passing yards per game, again, second only to Boyd.

Glennon has many capable receivers. Quintin Payton, a native of nearby Anderson, SC and graduate of T.L. Hanna High School, leads the team in receptions with 42 for 669 yards and a score. He is in the top 10 in the ACC in receptions and receptions per game. Bryan Underwood is his favorite target when it comes to touchdown passes. Underwood has 10 receiving touchdowns this year, second in the ACC to Clemson's DeAndre Hopkins, who has 14.

Underwood was one game short of tying the ACC record for consecutive games with a touchdown catch. He had eight in a row before Virginia kept him out of the endzone on November 3. Herman Moore, an All-American at Virginia, still has the record with nine consecutive games with a touchdown catch in 1990. Hopkins has a streak of seven in a row entering today's game.

N.C. State has a fine defense, allowing just 22.3 points per game, second-best in the ACC. Cornerback David Amerson is a returning All-American and has 17 career interceptions, tied for first among active FBS players. That includes four interceptions this season. The top tackler for N C. State is Brandan Bishop, a senior safety who has a team-high 83 tackles, sixth-most in the ACC. Earl Wolff has 82 tackles, while Rickey Dowdy leads the team in tackles for loss (11.5).

Tiger Defense Continues Improvement

Clemson's defense has been making significant strides over the last few weeks. The Tigers have jumped all the way to 33rd in the nation in scoring defense and third in the ACC, allowing 22.4 points per game. In the last four games, Clemson has not given up more than 20 points and s allowing just 15.0 points and 304.5 yards per game.

The Tigers held Maryland to 10 points, 10 first downs, nd 180 yards of total offense in their 45-10 win on Homeoming last weekend. Maryland was just 1-13 on thirdlown conversions and averaged only 3.4 yards per pass ttempt. The total-offense figure (180) was the low total or a Clemson opponent since 2009.

Boyd Looks to Become Seventh 20-Game Winner

Tajh Boyd is having an outstanding season. The junior is second in the nation and first in the ACC in passing efficiency (172.0). That would be a Clemson record if the season ended today. He is trying to become just the second Tiger in history to finish in the top 10 in the nation in passing efficiency. Mike Eppley was third in the nation in 1983 (146.0).

Boyd continues to chase school records and has some marks that he already owns. He has 28 touchdown passes for the season, second-most in school history to the 33 he had last year. He has thrown 13 touchdown passes in the last three games, all in the first half of those contests. The Tigers have scored at least 35 points in the first half in each of the last three games, so he has not played much in the second half.

Boyd has a 19-5 career record as a starting quarterback. He needs one more win to become the seventh player in Clemson history to quarterback the Tigers to at least 20 wins in a career. That 19-5 record includes a 12-0 mark at Memorial Stadium. He has been the common denominator in the Tigers' 12-game winning streak at home, a record for Clemson's 71 years in Memorial Stadium.

The all-time leader is Rodney Williams, who won 32 games between 1985-88. Charlie Whitehurst is second with 25 victories.

For the year, Boyd is 210-309 passing for 2,941 yards and 28 touchdowns against nine interceptions. He is averaging 9.52 passing yards per attempt, on pace to break Bobby Gage's school record of 9.19 passing yards per attempt (1947).

10.	Harvey White	1957-59	18-7

Hopkins Second in the Nation in Touchdown Catches

DeAndre Hopkins has 14 touchdown receptions this year, second-most in the nation. Overall, he is averaging 109.6 receiving yards per game, which is eighth-most in the nation, and his 6.6 receptions per game are 23rd-most in the country. The native of nearby Central, SC and former D.W. Daniel High School product needs just 23 receiving yards to break Aaron Kelly's Tiger career record of 2,733 receiving yards. As previously stated, he has at least one touchdown reception in seven straight games and has a streak of 10 straight games with a touchdown catch against FBS opponents. The only opponent to keep him out of the endzone since last year's Orange Bowl was Furman in the third game this season.

ON THIS DATE

Clemson is 10-5 (.667) all-time on November 17. The last game on this date was Boston College's 20-17 win over the Tigers at Memorial Stadium in 2007.

Another GOOD TIGER DEFENSIVE LINEMAN

MALLICIAH GOODMAN HAS CAUSED HAVOC FOR OPPOSING OFFENSES FOR FOUR SEASONS AS ANOTHER IN A LONG LINE OF TOP-NOTCH DEFENSIVE LINEMEN AT CLEMSON.

BY SCHUYLER EASTERLING

Over the past decade, the Tigers have been proud to claim some of the best defensive ends as their own. Defensive ends like the late Gaines Adams, Ricky Sapp, and Da'Quan Bowers will forever be ingrained within the lexicon of Tiger fans, bolstering the tradition that has long been a hallmark of Clemson football...defense.

Fast-forward to 2012, and there is another Tiger defensive end following in the footsteps of Adams, Sapp, and Bowers, carrying the mantle for the defensive line through hard work and dedication.

Hailing from Florence, SC and measuring in at 6'4" and 270 pounds, senior Malliciah Goodman certainly fits the mold. Known for his behemoth hand size, measuring 11.5 inches from pinky finger to thumb, his size XXXXL football gloves encase his powerful hands.

Goodman's massive arms create a wingspan comparable only to a small jet, allowing him to wreak havoc on opposing offensive lines. They have enabled him to total a team-tying-high two caused fumbles in 2012 and six career caused fumbles.

When looking at the imposing figure of Goodman flying around the gridiron, it seems apparent this young man was destined to play football as a defensive end.

Looking back eight years ago, playing football in Clemson, SC was the last place Goodman could have envisioned himself being.

"I didn't even play football until the eighth grade," admitted Goodman. "A lot of my friends played football, and throughout seventh grade, they kept trying to get me to try out and play.

"Eventually, they convinced me. I gave it a shot and I made the team. From the start, I fell in love with the game, but I never dreamed I'd be playing football in college one day."

But for Goodman, the dream he could not envision suddenly became a reality. His natural football ability shined through and attracted college football coaches from around the country. By the droves, they flocked to Florence to check out the massive defensive end, who was rolling through offensive lines like a wrecking ball.

College offers poured in, and so did the accolades. After his senior year at West Florence High School, Goodman was named a Parade All-American, first-team All-American by EA Sports, the #36 player in the nation by Rivals.com, the #10 defensive end in the nation by ESPN.com, and the #11 defensive end in the country by Scout.com.

After racking up 73 tackles, 27 tackles for loss, and 15 sacks in nine games as a senior, Goodman was named the #1 player in South Carolina by Rivals.com, a finalist for Mr. Football in South Carolina, and represented the Palmetto State in the Shrine Bowl and U.S. Army All-American game.

When Clemson and a young wide receivers coach named Dabo Swinney came calling, Goodman was ready to listen.

"I knew about Clemson pretty well," said a smiling Goodman. "Clemson, being an in-state school and in a great part of South Carolina, really appealed to me. Columbia and the University of South Carolina were too much of a city area for me.

"Clemson reminded me a lot of home... laid back and quiet. I knew it was a place where I could focus on getting a great education and playing football.

"I also loved the family atmosphere. The coaches, staff, and players are truly one big family. I loved that more than anything about Clemson. I committed to Clemson early."

"I'M THE FIRST PERSON IN MY FAMILY TO ATTEND A DIVISION I SCHOOL. I'M VERY PROUD OF THAT. WHEN I HAVE KIDS OF MY OWN ONE DAY, I KNOW I'LL BE ABLE TO SMILE AND TELL THEM THAT I WENT TO CLEMSON AND PLAYED FOOTBALL THERE."

Goodman graduated from high school in December of 2008 and arrived in Tigertown soon thereafter. From the get-go, he loved playing for the Tigers.

"There's no place better than Clemson on gameday," beamed Goodman. "The atmosphere is incredible.

"During the week, Clemson is a quiet place. You see traffic around campus and students moving around, but that's about it. But on Friday, the place gets crazy and people are packed everywhere. Orange is everywhere, cars are everywhere, and people are walking around everywhere. When we pull up for Tiger Walk and see all those tailgaters and the traffic pouring in, that's special."

Like the raucous gameday atmosphere in Death Valley, the past four years with Goodman have also been special. In his freshman campaign, Goodman was named co-rookie-of-the-year by the Clemson coaching staff and named freshman All-ACC by Rivals.com, playing all 14 games and averaging 24 snaps per game.

As a sophomore in 2010, Goodman showed steady improvement, notching 32 tackles, three tackles for loss, one sack, six quarterback pressures, and three caused fumbles (tied for second-most in the ACC). He was one of the reasons Clemson finished in the top 15 in the nation in total defense and scoring defense.

Last year, Goodman contributed greatly to Clemson winning its first ACC Championship in 20 years. He had 59 tackles, four tackles for loss, two sacks, and 14 quarterback pressures in 767 snaps over 14 starts. The 767 snaps are the most ever by a Tiger defensive lineman. For his outstanding performance in the ACC Championship game against #3 Virginia Tech, Goodman was named team co-defensive player-of-the-game.

This season, Goodman is anchoring the defensive line as the only returning starter from last year's squad. Using his experience and skill, he has helped guide the defensive line to steady improvement throughout the 2012 season. The Tigers are currently ranked #9 in the nation and are hoping to earn a BCS bowl bid for the second straight year.

Goodman and the senior class has 34 victories heading into today's contest against N.C. State. One more win will make this class eighth in Clemson history in victories.

Although the fun is in the winning, Goodman cited his teammates and coaches as the most special part of being a Tiger.

"The relationships I've built with my teammates and coaches are what I will cherish most about my time at Clemson," said Goodman. "Those friendships will last a lifetime. I will soon graduate and go professional, but I will never forget the teammates and coaches I had at Clemson.

"It is an incredible bond. We're with each other through winter workouts, summer workouts, through camps, and through the season. We spend so much time together that we become a family. They're all my brothers."

Goodman will graduate from Clemson with a sociology degree and has his eyes set on a career in the NFL. Although he may soon leave Clemson, he realizes that Clemson will never fully leave him.

"Clemson and the opportunities I've had here mean everything to me," stated Goodman. "I'm the first person in my family to attend a Division I school. I'm very proud of that. When I have kids of my own one day, I know I'll be able to smile and tell them that I went to Clemson and played football there.

"Not many people get that opportunity. It's been a real blessing in my life to come here and grow as a man. Clemson has been great for me and it's prepared me for whatever the next step in my life will be."

And for a young man as determined to succeed as Malliciah Goodman, that next step will undoubtedly be one that makes Clemson University proud.

SPENCER BENTON

SETTING RECORDS

THE KICKER HAS SET TWO RECORDS IN HIS FIVE SEASONS IN TIGERTOWN, INCLUDING AN ACC RECORD THAT HAS NOT BEEN MATCHED BY COUNTLESS FUTURE NFL KICKERS.

BY KATHRYN ANDREOLI

A family away from home is how Spencer Benton referred to his Clemson football teammates in a recent interview in the WestZone. The 6'1", 195-pound punter and placekicker serves as a leader to his teammates in his fifth year with the program.

"It's been a journey," said Benton. "When you're a freshman, it's a growing process. Once you get to that senior role, you get an understanding for the program and how well the coaches want the leadership to be."

He has certainly made a mark at Clemson, setting a school and ACC record with a 61-yard field goal against Ball State in September. It is the longest field goal in the nation this season and the longest by an FBS player in the last four years.

He is perhaps the most well-rounded special teams player at Clemson since the days of Chris Gardocki (1988-90). Not only does Benton kick off and punt, he is the long field-goal kicker, the holder for placekicks for Chandler Catanzaro, and has been known to run the ball or throw the ball on fake field goals. And by the way, he will make a crushing tackle on a kickoff return when called on. He has done that better than any other kicker in Clemson history.

Benton aims to improve not only personally, but as a team each day at practice. The two-time member of the ACC Academic Honor Roll leads by example on and off the field.

"One thing I've learned is leadership doesn't have to be verbal," explained Benton. "You can lead by your actions on the field, how you play, and in the classroom."

Benton has overcome injury and pressure in close-game situations by pushing forward and maintaining a competitive mentality to succeed one day at a time.

The Myrtle Beach, SC native was recruited by Head Coach Dabo Swinney out of Myrtle Beach High School. Swinney was Clemson's recruiting coordinator at the time, and Benton's impressive high school performance caught his attention.

With a standout high school career as both a wide receiver and kicker, Benton attracted the attention of many college coaches and was offered by Duke, Georgia Tech, Notre Dame, South Carolina, and Virginia in addition to the Tiger program.

Benton made 22 field goals and 99 extra points at Myrtle Beach High School. He also played wide receiver, with 410 yards and four touchdowns as a senior.

He chose Clemson with the guidance of Swinney.

"Going through the recruiting process, I was able to talk to a lot of coaches. Coach Swinney was the recruiting coordinator at the time and he came to my high school full force with energy, enthusiastic as can be, and sold it to me."

Following his high school graduation in December of 2007, Benton enrolled at Clemson in January as a gray-shirt. In the fall, Benton red-shirted.

> "FOR THE TEAM, WE WANT TO KEEP GETTING BETTER WEEK IN AND WEEK OUT. WE'RE STILL STRIVING FOR THAT PERFECT GAME, AND PERFECTION IS SOMETHING WE CAN ALWAYS CHASE."

Benton quickly began setting records in his first season on the field in 2009. He handled every kickoff duty for the Tigers. He also had nine special teams tackles on kickoff coverage, establishing a single-season and career record that was previously held by Mark Buchholz.

Benton has continued to be outstanding in that area and has 27 career special teams tackles, more than three times as many as any other kicker in Clemson history.

Benton saw more action on special teams in 2010 with his six tackles on kickoff coverage. Clemson had a 4.4-yard advantage in average starting field position after kickoffs that year, thanks in large part to Benton's right leg.

The 2011 season posed some challenges for Benton when he suffered a shoulder injury in the Virginia Tech game on October 1, which forced him to miss four games.

"When Spencer went out, it was a big loss for us," stated Swinney. "He does so much with the special teams. When he goes out, it is like losing three players. He has to be one of the more versatile special teams players in the nation."

The Clemson kicker set an ACC record on September 29, 2012 against Ball State when he drilled a 61-yard field goal from the right hashmark to close the first half. It was the longest field goal in ACC history, surpassing the 60-yard mark set by Florida State's Gary Cismesia in 2007.

"After a lot of long practice kicks, it was great to see it happen in a game," said Benton. "The coolest thing was to see the fans. This year, I grasped the idea that the fans want you to succeed. There is a lot of pressure out there, but you try to focus on being successful."

He also booted a 58-yard punt earlier this year and became the first Tiger in history to register both a punt and field goal of at least 58 yards in the same season.

"Personally, I am striving to be the best I can be in every area," said Benton. "I want to be in the top five in the nation in total touchbacks. I'd like to make it to the NFL. That's been my dream."

The bar is set high for Benton and the Tigers, but this team-oriented leader believes that performing at practice and approaching each day with the same mentality to succeed will have its benefits.

"For the team, we want to keep getting better week in and week out. We're still striving for that perfect game, and perfection is something we can always chase."

Benton and the Tigers will continue to chase perfection as they near the end of the regular season and hope to make it to another BCS bowl game.

"You have to get within yourself and zone everything out and execute, just like at practice," added #13.

Benton is a Tiger who leads by example each day, all-the-while setting records, making him one of the most remarkable all-around student-athletes at Clemson.

The History of CLEMSON'S COLORS AND MASCOT

BY DR. JERRY REEL

THE SCHOOL COLORS HAVE EVOLVED TO THE ORANGE & PURPLE THAT THEY ARE TODAY, BUT THEY WERE NOT ALWAYS THAT WAY. THE ORIGIN OF THE TIGER MASCOT IS A HOTLY-CONTESTED TOPIC AS WELL.

Enoch Walter Sikes, Clemson's sixth president (1925-40), was a football player from Wake Forest and had a Ph.D. in history from Johns Hopkins. Early in his presidency, he remarked that the origin of the Clemson Tiger was the fact that Thomas Green Clemson was frequently seen walking the Fort Hill place carrying a walking cane with a tigerhead carved for a handle, and that is where the Clemson Tigers come from.

However, the legendary walking cane does not exist among the possessions that survived Mr. Clemson's death on April 6, 1888. That raises an interesting question...from whence did the Tiger and the colors derive, or does anyone know for certain? And when were they chosen and by whom?

ANKS McFADDEN (1937-39) AND THE TI RS WORE A DIFFERENT DARK SHADE N THEIR EVER-EVOLVING UNIFORMS.

It is as curious as John Butler's (longtime director of the Clemson Tiger Marching Band) memory of President R.C. Edwards' reaction to the 1963 (new) band uniforms, with their Britannic cut and black-beaver busbies who exclaimed that the orange of the tunic was not Clemson's orange and cited the colors that were kept in the registrar's safe.

He and Butler repaired to the registrar's office and he retrieved the colors in an envelope. The purple ribbon was indeed purple, but the orange ribbon was gold. It was a decidedly LSU purple and gold.

According to 8utler, Edwards took one look at that and declared, "Those are not Clemson's colors, these," as he patted the band tunic, "are."

So, it rested until Clemson was preparing for the 1975 season and a trip to Knoxville, TN.

8uck 8reazeale, IPTAY president, a Knoxville businessman, and a representative to the athletic council, lamented that when they arrived in Knoxville, they would see all the Volunteers arrayed in a quite-uniform orange, while Clemson's orange would be all over the color chart.

8reazeale urged Edwards and then moved that the chair appoint a "true orange committee" to determine the "true orange." Edwards did so, naming Tom Efland, a faculty member in the School of Textiles, to chair the same, and asked that Corrine Sawyer, professor of English, and myself, then professor of history with a fair knowledge of heraldry, to serve on the "true orange" committee.

He authorized Efland to draft the resources of the textile school and suggested that the committee develop a formula-specific orange and purple, and register them to Clemson...and so they did.

The color specialists, the fabric specialists, and the lab equipment were pressed into service. The three committee members chose an agreeable, distinct, and strong orange, and it was submitted to the color specialists to analyze based on the fabric to which it was to be applied.

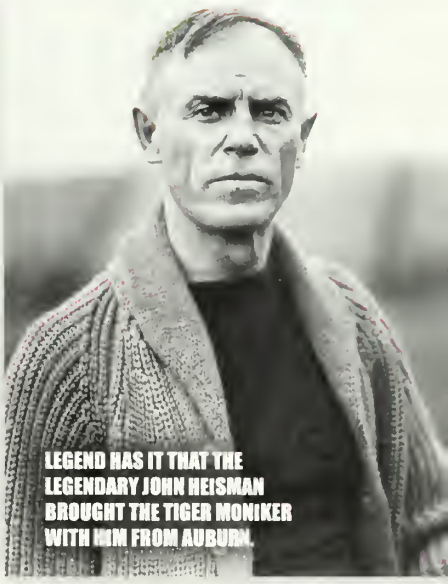
The formulae were adopted and the colors (orange and purple) were specified. But, that begs the question of "Why orange?" why not "red" or "blue?"

In fact Clemson's first colors, according to the accounts of our early football games (1896), were red and blue. They even appear on the diploma of the 1896 December graduation. No one knows the reason for the change, although it has been speculated that one sight of South Carolina's garnet and black suggested Clemson was heading down an undesirable path. A few years later, the color had changed to orange and purple, as no reason was given.

The mascot is open to much more speculation. Because the minutes of the group of students who created the football team survived, we know this much. In a notice in the Anderson Independent (March 6, 1934), Major William T. 8rock was credited with successfully proposing to the football team that its mascot should be the "Tiger."

8rock was a quarterback on the 1897 team. Hamilton, the team captain, agreed, noting that Princeton had great football prominence in those years (it finished 11-0 in 1893, 8-2 in 1894, and 10-1-1 in 1895).

Hamilton was impressed with Princeton's football and academic prominence. All the other suggested origins of the Tiger include Mr. Clemson's walking stick, borrowed from Auburn, which did not start using the "Tiger" until 1898, and Heisman brought the Tiger from Auburn. The Columbia Record notes the use of the Tiger by Clemson four years before Heisman came to Clemson.



LEGEND HAS IT THAT THE LEGENDARY JOHN HEISMAN BROUGHT THE TIGER MONIKER WITH HIM FROM AUBURN.

This seems to be the best explanation. And when one remembers that Princeton's primary color was orange, perhaps two questions are answered with one place of origin. The only other link would be Walter Riggs, although if the date 1898 is correct (taken from Auburn's yearbook, Glomerata), Riggs was long gone from Auburn when that happened.

Oh well, it makes good grist for post-game arguments.

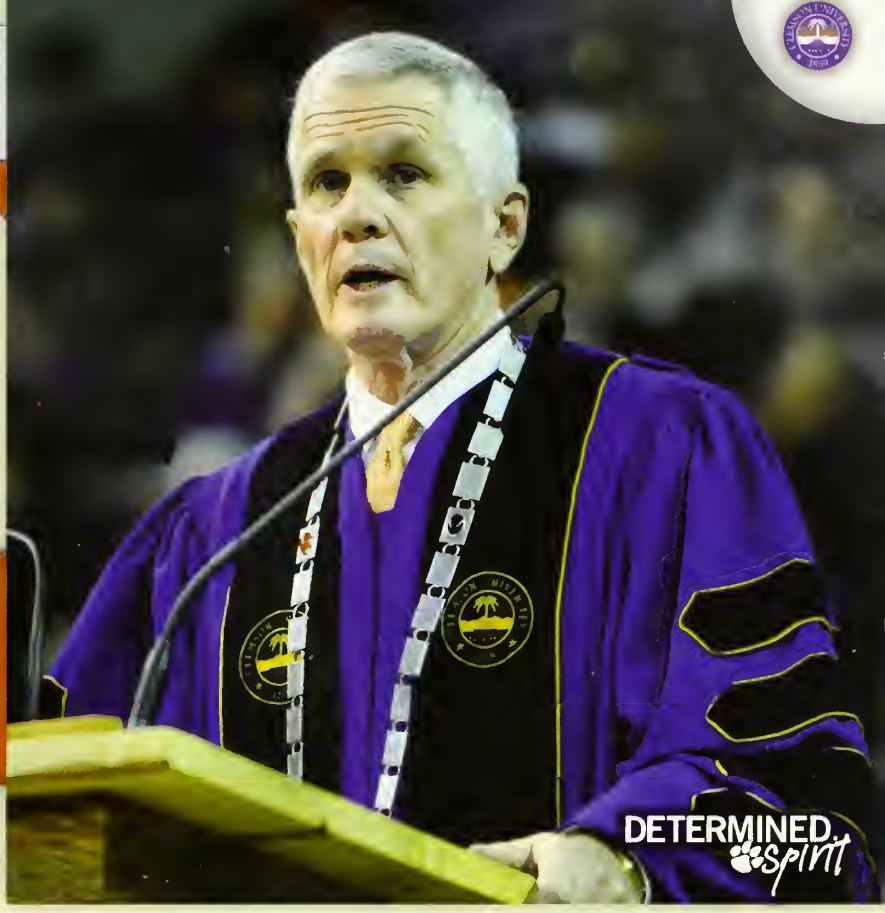
CLEMSON UNIVERSITY

CLEMSON UNIVERSITY

President

JAMES F. BARKER



JIM BARKER BEGAN HIS CAREER AT CLEMSON UNIVERSITY AS AN ARCHITECTURE STUDENT AND TRACK ATHLETE. AFTER YEARS AS A PRACTICING ARCHITECT, TEACHER, AND DEAN, HE WAS NAMED CLEMSON PRESIDENT IN 1999 AND HAS SINCE PRESIDED OVER A DRAMATIC ERA OF GROWTH IN ACADEMIC QUALITY TO SEE CLEMSON BECOME A TOP-25 PUBLIC RESEARCH UNIVERSITY.

Jim Barker has worn a lot of hats in his almost five decades as a member of the Clemson family - student, athlete, alumnus, teacher, dean, parent, fan, and president. On reflection, he thinks "student" is the most important.

"I often tell people I learned everything from plumbing to poetry in architecture school, and I use every bit of that knowledge as president of Clemson University."

A 1970 Clemson graduate, Barker was named president in 1999 with a mandate from the Board of Trustees to lead Clemson into the top ranks of American universities.

At his inaugural address in April of 2000, he said, "I am convinced that there is no university in America stronger than Clemson when we are 'One Clemson.' A united Clemson is unstoppable."

During the "One Clemson" decade that followed, the university harnessed the competitive, determined spirit of the Clemson family to transform itself from a respected state institution into one of the nation's finest public universities.

Clemson climbed from the third tier to a top-25 ranking among public universities in the 2012 U.S. News & World Report guide to colleges, and has been recognized for value, affordability, and return on investment by Kiplinger's and Bloomberg/BusinessWeek magazines.

Ninety-two percent of seniors would choose Clemson again according to the National Survey of Student Engagement. Clemson also ranks among the top public universities in the percentage of alumni who make gifts to their school, another indication of quality and alumni satisfaction.

Clemson continues to attract top students and faculty. It is the top choice of Palmetto Fellows, the state's best students. A record-setting 18,502 undergraduate applications were received for the 2012 fall semester, and freshman enrollment in the Calhoun Honors College is up 16 percent.

The university provides an unmatched educational experience - intellectual development - for students and research-driven economic development for the state of South Carolina.

Last year's news highlights also include the following:

- Dedication ceremonies were held for the Larry Penley Golf Clubhouse, the Class of 1956 Academic Success Center, and the Lee Hall expansion and renovation. Work will be completed this year on a new Life Sciences building.
- The Will to Lead capital campaign, which raised $608 million by the original completion date of June 30, 2012, has been extended, with a new goal of $1 billion. Three families made gifts of at least $5 million each to name the Glenn Department of Civil Engineering, and to build the Watt Family Innovation Center on campus and the Zucker Family Graduate Education Center near the wind turbine drivetrain test facility currently under construction in North Charleston, SC. These gifts support students, faculty, and facilities, including new athletic facilities.

Barker is a leading voice in higher education for South Carolina and the nation. He served on the NCAA Division I Board of Directors for four years, including three as chairman, and chairs the Working Group, rewriting the rulebook for NCAA athletics. He also delivered keynote addresses at the national Campus Development Summit and the South Carolina AIA conference in April of 2012.

For his leadership, Barker has received the Order of the Palmetto, South Carolina's highest civilian honor, and The Cliff's Business Person-of-the-Year Award from Greenville Magazine. He has also been awarded honorary doctorates from the Medical University of South Carolina, South Carolina State University, and Mars Hill College.

A native of Kingsport, TN, Barker received his bachelor of arts degree from Clemson in 1970 and his master of architecture & urban design degree in 1973 from Washington University (Saint Louis, MO), which also recognized him with its Distinguished Alumnus Award. He is a Fellow of the American Institute of Architects and the Institute for Urban Design.

As Clemson's President, Barker remains committed to the classroom. Each spring, he is part of a team that teaches an undergraduate course exploring "a sense of place" in architecture, literature, and history.

In his spare time, what there is of it, he maintains the daily fitness regimen of a life-long athlete and enjoys playing with his grandchildren. He is widely acclaimed for his pen-and-ink drawings of campus buildings and his watercolor paintings.

Barker and his wife, Marcia, have two sons, Britt and Jacob, a daughter-in-law, Rita Bolt Barker, and two granddaughters, Madeline and Eliza.

Terry Don Phillips
ATHLETIC DIRECTOR

The 2011-12 academic year was a rewarding time for Clemson Athletic Director Terry Don Phillips, who announced in August that the 2012-13 academic year will be his last at Clemson.

One of his goals when he came to Clemson was to help the school's football program return to championship form. That goal became a reality when the Tiger football program under Dabo Swinney, who he had hired in December of 2008, led the Tigers to their first league title in 20 years with a resounding 38-10 win over #3 Virginia Tech in Charlotte, NC.

The program defeated a school-record four top-25 teams along the way, including two wins over future Hall of Fame Coach Frank Beamer's Hokies. That 38-10 victory in Charlotte gave the Tigers a 10-win season for the first time in 21 years.

It was also a successful season off the field. From an academic standpoint, Clemson's APR score of 983 was #7 among FBS schools, and Clemson was the only BCS school to win a conference title and finish in the top 10 in the nation in APR. Sixteen of Clemson's 19 sports had APR scores of 970 or better and those 19 sports had a collective GPA of 2.99, the highest on record.

Overall, six sports finished in the top 25 of their respective sports, there were three ACC Championships celebrated, and four wins over top-ranked teams. A defending National Champion was defeated in two different sports on Clemson's home turf as well.

The Tigers have competed at a high level since Phillips came to Clemson from Oklahoma State in the summer of 2002. In his first year, the Tigers won the National Championship in golf, just the fourth team national title in school history.

From 2008-09 and 2010-11, Clemson nd Florida State were the only schools in the nation to go to a bowl game, the NCAA Men's Basketball Tournament, and the NCAA Baseball Tournament each season.

One of the reasons for Clemson's level of success as a total sports program has been Phillips' emphasis on improving facilties. In 2009, the football staff moved into he WestZone at Memorial Stadium. It was day that brought a smile to everyone associated with the program, but especially Phillips, who had been working toward hat day before he arrived in 2002.

Phillips' vision for the WestZone was to reate a top-of-the-line facility for the football program, but at the same time have a ositive effect on the total sports program. he facility at Memorial Stadium now cre- es more office space, new locker rooms, nd training room and strength training cilities for the Olympic sports programs.

Every sport has realized a facilities en- ncement since he came to Clemson and e construction has not stopped. The ger football program will enjoy a new door facility by the end of this year. The baseball program will soon break ground on a new locker room and player lounge facility, and the basketball programs are expected to break ground on a new facility within the next 18 months.

The Clemson men's golf program opened the Penley Building last fall and the women's golf program, which will begin play in 2013, will have a new facility at the Walker Course.

Phillips has been recognized for these accomplishments in recent years. He was named one of the 100 Most Influential Sports Educators in America in 2008 by The Institute for International Sport at the University of Rhode Island.

Phillips was also recognized nationally for his performance at Clemson in 2006 when he was honored by NACDA (National Association of Collegiate Directors of Athletics) as the 2005-06 Athletic Director-of-the-Year for the FBS Southeast Region. He was one of just four FBS athletic directors honored at the annual convention in New Orleans, LA.

Excellence in academics has been a lifelong pursuit. He has an undergraduate degree from Arkansas (1970), a master's degree from Virginia Tech (1974), a doctorate degree from Virginia Tech (1978), and a law degree from the University of Arkansas School of Law (1996). He is a member of the Arkansas Bar, South Carolina Bar, American Bar Association, and Sports Lawyers Association.

Phillips maintains a classroom presence by teaching a sports law section in Clemson's accountancy & legal studies department. In addition, he is past chair of the NCAA Division I Infractions Appeals Committee and continues to serve the committee as requested.

Prior to coming to Clemson, he served as athletic director at Oklahoma State. Football was transformed from a perennial losing status to very competitive, enjoying a return to bowl games after several years and establishing a winning record against rival Oklahoma. For this, he received the National Football Foundation Oklahoma Chapter Outstanding Contribution to Amateur Football Award in 2002.

Before leading the Cowboys, he was a senior associate athletic director at Arkansas (19BB-94). He also served as athletic director at Liberty (1980,81) and Louisiana-Lafayette (19B3-B8). He was an assistant athletic director at Missouri (19B1-83) and began his administrative career as an assistant athletic director at Florida (1979).

Phillips began his career in college athletics coaching football. He started as a graduate assistant at Arkansas in 1970 and 1971. He moved on to Virginia Tech as an assistant coach (1971-78) before joining the ranks of athletic administration. At Virginia Tech, he served on coaching staffs that included future Clemson Head Coaches Charley Pell and Danny Ford.

Winning has been on Phillips' resumé since his playing days at Arkansas. He lettered on three Frank Broyles teams, where he and his brother, Loyd, an Outland Trophy winner, were starting defensive tackles, the first brother combination to start together under Broyles. Arkansas had a 27-5 record in the three years, played in two Sugar Bowl games, and he played in the memorable 1969 national title game against Texas, a contest that continues to be featured on ESPN Classic.

In 2010, he joined Loyd in the University of Arkansas Hall of Honor.

Phillips has two children, John Dennis and Sarah-Jane, and three stepchildren, Meagan (Clemson graduate and former Tiger Band member), Marshall, and Madison. His wife, Tricia, is a graduate of the University of Missouri School of Journalism and earlier enjoyed a career in athletics and development. She is currently active in the Clemson and Seneca communities.

Head Coach DABO SWINNEY

AS CLEMSON'S 25TH HEAD COACH, DABO SWINNEY AND HIS ALL-IN APPROACH, BOTH ON AND OFF THE FIELD, HAS LED CLEMSON TO RECORD-SETTING ACHIEVEMENTS.

At 42, Dabo Swinney is the youngest head coach in the ACC and one of the youngest in the country. However, his resumé is already stuffed with many significant accomplishments on a school, ACC, and national level.

First, his mere appointment to the position was significant. In October of 2008, he was named Clemson interim head coach, replacing Tommy Bowden, who had been his position coach as a player at Alabama and was Clemson's head coach since 1999. He led the Tigers to a 4-2 record over the remainder of the 2008 regular season, including a victory over Steve Spurrier's South Carolina Gamecocks in the regular-season finale. That strong finish led to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska.

On December 1, 2008, the interim tag was removed from the title and he was named the program's head coach. At the time, there had been 28 interim head coaches at the FBS level since 1970 and those coaches had combined for a record of 26-86-2. Only one of those 28 interim coaches posted a winning record, and that was Swinney. When he was hired as the head coach, Swinney became just the second interim coach to be elevated to the head coach position at the same school during that time period.

In four years (three full seasons) as head coach, he has directed the Tigers to a 29-19 overall record (.604) and a 19-10 mark (.655) in ACC regular-season games. He has also led the Tigers to the ACC Championship game twice, won one ACC title, and has been named national coach-of-the-year.

In addition to leading the program to four bowl games on the field in his young career, his players have also excelled in the classroom. In his career as a head coach, his players have an APR score of 991, fifth-best among active FBS coaches.

His 2011 squad, which ended the season ranked #22 in the nation, captured Clemson's first ACC title since 1991 when it defeated #3 Virginia Tech 38-10 in the ACC Championship game in Charlotte, NC. It tied for the highest-ranked team the Tigers defeated in history and was the most points scored by an ACC team against Virginia Tech since it joined the league in 2004. The victory, the Tigers' second over the Hokies in 2011, gave Clemson its first 10-win season since 1990. The Tigers' four wins over top-25 ranked teams established a school record as well.

The Tigers jumped out to an 8-0 record and a #6 national ranking after being unranked in the preseason. Games 3-5 marked a tough stretch, as Clemson hosted #19 Auburn, who entered with a national-best 17-game winning streak, and #11 Florida State along with a road game at #10 Virginia Tech. The Tigers were victorious in all three contests by scores of 38-24, 35-30, and 23-3, respectively, marking the first time in history that an ACC team won three consecutive games over top-25 ranked (AP) teams.

For his efforts, he was named Bobby Dodd National Coach-of-the-Year in 2011 to become the first Tiger head coach to win a national coach-of-the-year award since 1981, when Danny Ford directed Clemson to the national title.

Swinney, who was also one of five finalists for the Eddie Robinson National Coach-of-the-Year award, one of 10 finalists for the Bear Bryant National Coach-of-the-Year award, one of 10 finalists for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award, and received the Regional AFCA Coach-of-the-Year award in 2011, led the Tigers to their first Orange Bowl berth since 1981.

The 2010 season included wins over bowl teams Georgia Tech, Maryland, and N.C. State. The Wolfpack were ranked #23 in the nation and were leading the ACC in scoring. But the Clemson defense held N.C. State to just one touchdown and 13 points. The team excelled defensively in 2010 and was 13th in the nation in scoring defense and in the top 25 in both total defense and passing defense.

C.J. Spiller was a unanimous first-team All-American in Swinney's first year, and defensive end Da'Quan Bowers duplicated the feat on the defensive side of the ball. Bowers won the 2010 Bronko Nagurski Award as the nation's top defensive player, and he received the Ted Hendricks Award as the country's top defensive end. He was also a finalist for the Bednarik Award and Lombardi Award. He led the nation in sacks (15.5) and tied for the national lead in tackles for loss (26).

In 2009, Swinney's first full year as head coach, he led the Tigers to their first championship of the ACC's Atlantic Division. The Tigers came just six points short of winning their first ACC title in 18 years. Swinney was named ACC Coach-of-the-Year by Sporting News and was a finalist for the Liberty Mutual Coach-of-the-Year award.

Swinney accumulated nine wins, second-most among all FBS coaches in their first full year. The nine wins tied for fourth-most in ACC history for a first-year head coach. He also led the Tigers to their first bowl win since 2005 in the 21-13 victory over Kentucky in the Music City Bowl.

Swinney's first season included a six-game winning streak at midseason, a streak that saw the Tigers score at least 34 points in every game, a first in school history. During that stretch, the Tigers defeated #8 Miami (FL) on the road. The 40-37 overtime victory tied for the highest-ranked team Clemson has defeated on the road in school history.

Swinney became Clemson's interim head coach on October 13, 2008 when Tommy Bowden stepped down. Then on December 1, 2008, the "interim" tag was removed, as he took over on a full-time basis as the Tigers' 25th head coach. He had been Clemson's assistant head coach for two years and was in charge of the wide receivers since 2003.

Swinney took over a 3-3 team and led it to a Gator Bowl bid against Nebraska. He guided Clemson to a 4-1 record over the last five games of the regular season, with the only loss at #24 Florida State. That 4-1 record to end the regular season tied for the best mark in the ACC for that time period. Four of his six regular-season opponents were later bowl participants.

The 1993 Alabama graduate joined the Clemson staff prior to the 2003 season. In his first nine years as an assistant or head coach, the Tigers have finished in the top 25 of the polls five times and totaled 15 wins over top-25 teams.

Swinney coached his wide receiver position to a level of consistency that had not been seen previously at Clemson. He had a wideout finish first or second in the ACC in catches in five of his six years as an assistant coach. In his first year, he had three of the top-10 receivers in the ACC, a first in Tiger history. He has coached a First or Second-Team All-ACC wideout in eight of his nine seasons at Clemson, also an unprecedented feat at Clemson.

The Alabama native has a reputation as one of the top recruiters in the nation. In 2006, he was listed as the #5 recruiter in the nation by Rivals.com. It marked the second straight year that he was lauded by the website as a top-25 national recruiter. He signed 38 players in his five recruiting seasons as an assistant coach and was a major reason Clemson's 2008 recruiting class was rated #2 in the nation by ESPN.com when he signed 11 players. He was named one of the top-25 recruiters in the nation by Rivals.com in 2007 as well.

Swinney received a commerce & business administration degree from Alabama in 1993 after lettering three times (1990-92). A walk-on who went on to earn a scholarship, Swinney was a wide receiver on Alabama's 1992 National Championship team. He was also named Academic All-SEC along with being an SEC Scholar-Athlete Honor Roll member in 1990 and 1992.

After his playing career, Swinney served as a graduate assistant from 1993-95 at Alabama, where he coached in the 1994 Gator Bowl and 1995 Citrus Bowl. In December of 1995, he received a master's degree in business administration from Alabama.

He became a full-time assistant coach at Alabama in February of 1996 under Head Coach Gene Stallings (now in the Hall of Fame) and coached a total of five seasons there on a full-time basis.

During his time at Alabama, Swinney was a part of six teams with at least 10 wins, five top-10 finishes, one national title (1992), three SEC Championships (1989,92,99), and five SEC Western Division titles (1992,93,94,96,99) as a player and coach.

From April of 2001 through February of 2003, Swinney was in private business in Alabama. He married the former Kathleen Bassett in 1994. They have three sons, Will (14), Drew (12), and Clay (9).

WOODY McCORVEY

Associate AD Football Administration

- 11th Season at Clemson
- Alabama State '72
- Born September 30, 1950

Woody McCorvey returned to Clemson after 20 years to become Associate Athletic Director for Football Administration on Dabo Swinney's first staff in 2009. McCorvey was Swinney's position coach during his playing days at Alabama and served as wide receivers and tight ends coach on Danny Ford's Tiger staff from 1983-89.

McCorvey is the primary liaison between Swinney and the athletic and IPTAY administrations. He also oversees the management of the football administrative offices.

He supervises the football budget and works with the staff at Vickery Hall to oversee the team's academic progress. He also makes speaking engagements and represents the football staff at various meetings and functions.

McCorvey worked seven seasons at Clemson between 1983-89. With McCorvey coaching the tight ends from 1983-85 and the wide receivers from 1986-89, Clemson posted a 60-19-3 record and won three ACC titles. During that time, the Tigers were invited to the 1985 Independence Bowl, the 1986 and 1989 Gator Bowls, and the 1988 and 1989 Citrus Bowls. Clemson posted a 10-2 record in each of his last three seasons under Ford.

McCorvey coached at the Division I level for 26 years and went to a bowl game 17 of those seasons. Overall, he had 36 years of experience as a football coach. He coached or signed 36 players who went on to a professional football career as well.

In 2010, McCorvey was inducted into the Atmore (AL) Hall of Fame. The Atmore, AL native is married to the former Ann Brown. The couple has a son, Marlon.

BRAD SCOTT

Assistant AD

- 14th Season at Clemson
- South Florida '79
- Born September 30, 1954

Brad Scott is in his 14th year with the Clemson program, but only his second in athletic administration. The assistant athletic director moved into administration in March of 2011 after 12 seasons as an assistant coach under Tommy Bowden and Dabo Swinney from 1999-10. His 12-year tenure, which included him working with the offensive line, is tied for the ninth-longest for a Clemson football assistant coach in the program's history.

Scott works primarily with the football program in various administrative duties, but he has department-wide responsibilities when it comes to serving as a liaison between Clemson and high schools in securing documents needed to gain admission to Clemson University.

Clemson had great success on the gridiron during Scott's tenure as an assistant coach and associate head coach, as the Tigers set numerous offensive records.

Scott served under Bobby Bowden at Florida State from 1983-93 and was offensive coordinator from 1990-93. In 1993, Florida State won its first national title and Charlie Ward became its first Heisman Trophy winner. Scott later served as head coach at South Carolina from 1994-98.

Scott is a 1979 graduate of South Florida and earned a master's degree from Florida State in 1984. He was born on September 30, 1954 in Arcadia, FL and is married to Daryle. The couple has two sons (Jeff, John). Jeff is an assistant coach and the recruiting coordinator on the Clemson football staff and John is a doctor in Boston, MA.

ANOY JOHNSTON

Associate AD
Football Operations

- 31st Season at Clemson
- Clemson '79
- Born May 22, 1957

Andy Johnston is in his 16th year with the Tiger football program and currently serves as associate athletic director for football operations. His responsibilities include managing the program's day-to-day operations. Although this is his 16th year with the football program, he has been involved with the Clemson athletic department for 30 years. From 1983-97, he was the winningest women's tennis coach in school history.

In those 15 years, Johnston guided his squads to five consecutive ACC titles (1983-87), 12 top-25 finishes, and six NCAA Tournaments. He was ACC Coach-of-the-Year for the fourth time and Southeast Region Coach-of-the-Year for the second time in 1993. Seven players he coached at Clemson were named to the ACC 50-Year Anniversary team in 2002.

Johnston had a 254-160 Clemson record and 263-167 career mark. His best season at Clemson was his rookie year when the team had a 30-5 record and finished #7 in the polls. He coached former Lady Tiger Gigi Fernandez, who was inducted into the Clemson Hall of Fame in 2005.

Johnston played for Clemson on the hardcourt and earned his degree in administrative management in 1979. He then served as the assistant men's tennis coach in 1980.

Johnston is a native of Summerville, SC. He is married to the former Sophie Woorons. He has a daughter, Kiera (22), and a son, Noah (5). A second daughter, Caylynn, passed away in 2008.

JEFF DAVIS

Assistant AD
Player Relations & External Affairs

- 9th Season at Clemson
- Clemson '84
- Born January 26, 1960

Jeff Davis is in his fourth year as assistant athletic director for player relations & external affairs within the Clemson football program. During the previous five years, he served as an assistant athletic director for fundraising, where he helped raise funds for the WestZone Club at Memorial Stadium. He also served as the primary spokesman for Clemson University's Call Me Mister Program and served as director from 1999-03.

Davis was an All-America linebacker from 1978-81 who captained the Tigers during their 1981 National Championship run. "The Judge" registered a then-Tiger-record 15 tackles in 1981. That same season, he became just the third defensive player in ACC history to be named league MVP. Davis had 14 tackles as Clemson topped Nebraska 22-15 in the 1982 Orange Bowl.

In 1995, he became the fourth member of the Clemson Ring of Honor, then he was named to Clemson's Centennial Team in 1996. In 2002, he was named to the ACC's 50-Year Anniversary team.

In 2007, he was inducted into the National Football Foundation College Football Hall of Fame. A fifth-round draft pick by Tampa Bay in 1982, he played six seasons in the NFL. Davis later graduated from Clemson in 1984.

Davis, an ordained pastor, lives in Clemson with his wife, Joni, and their six children.

Daniel Bassett is in his fourth year as director of football programs at Clemson. He is in charge of on-campus meals and housing, maintaining the recruiting database, and community outreach. Prior to being hired as director of football programs in 2008, he worked as a student volunteer and later in office administration (2003-05).

He received his undergraduate degree in broadcasting from Tennessee in 2001. He then came to Clemson, where he earned his master's degree in professional communication in 2005. Bassett, a native of Birmingham, AL, was born on November 23, 1978.

MIKE DOOLEY

Director of
High School Relations
& Player Personnel

- 8th Season at Clemson
- Furman '98
- Born May 1, 1975

Mike Dooley is in his eighth year with the Tiger football program and serves as director of high school relations & player personnel. He is responsible for maintaining and improving relationships between high school coaches and Clemson.

Prior to being hired at his current position, he served two years (2005,06) as a video graduate assistant (defense) and two years (2007,08) as a graduate assistant coach (offense) at Clemson. He also served as interim tight ends coach in 2008 when Dabo Swinney was hired as head coach at midseason. Dooley worked as an assistant coach at Greenville (SC) High School from 1998-04 before coming to Clemson as well.

Dooley, a native of Toccoa, GA, lettered as a defensive end at Furman from 1993-95, but he missed his senior season due to injury. He had a sack against Clemson in Memorial Stadium in 1994. He was also an academic honor roll member and received his degree in health & exercise science from Furman in 1998.

Dooley is married to the former Allison Woodlee, a 2003 graduate of Clemson.

DON MUNSON

Director of Creative
Media Services

- 3rd Season at Clemson
- Appalachian State '84
- Born February 13, 1962

Don Munson is in his third year with the Tiger athletic department. He is familiar to Tiger fans due to his involvement with the Clemson radio network for the last 17 years.

He took over the new position of creative media services director in 2010. He has department-wide responsibilities, with an emphasis on football. He supervises the football recruiting website and social media sites, provides online video features for ClemsonTigers.com, and authors articles for various Clemson publications and websites. He also continues to serve as the host of the Tiger football and basketball coaches radio call-in program and provides play-by-play commentary on various Tiger Olympic sports.

Munson has covered Clemson athletics since 1994, when he first joined the network as the network's football pregame, halftime, and Fifth Quarter Show host. In 2003, he rejoined the radio network as host of the Tiger Tailgate Show and Fifth Quarter Show.

Munson is a 1984 graduate of Appalachian State with a degree in communications. Married on May 26, 1984, he and his wife, Elizabeth, have one daughter, Michelle.

DANNY POOLE

Director of
Sports Medicine

- 30th Season at Clemson
- Western Carolina '79
- Born June 7, 1957

Danny Poole is in his 12th season as Clemson's director of sports medicine, but he is a veteran of 29 years working in the Tiger athletic training facility. He supervises the athletic training needs of all student-athletes, but his primary area of emphasis is with the football program. He has 32 years of full-time experience in the athletic training field.

A 1979 Western Carolina graduate, Poole earned a bachelor's degree in health & physical education. He was a student trainer for the Catamounts for four years. He was published in the NATA Journal in 1979, "The D.P. Method for Blisters," as a student at Western Carolina.

Poole was honored in 2001 by his peers with the Athletic Trainers Service Award. The award is presented by the National Athletic Trainers Association to role models who are future leaders of the training profession. In 2012, Poole was named to the WellBalance Scientific Advisory Board. The Charlotte, NC native is married to the former Beth Morgan. The couple has two daughters, Jacqui Elaine and Abby Blair.

ALPHONSO SMITH

Director of Equipment

- 17th Season at Clemson
- Clemson '91

Alphonso Smith is in his 17th season at Clemson and his 13th year overseeing all equipment operations. Smith served as a men's basketball manager during his undergraduate and graduate years at Clemson from 1985-92. Smith also served as a graduate assistant in 1991,92.

Smith worked as assistant equipment supervisor at Memphis for three years. He was responsible for assisting the football program and was in charge of men's and women's basketball, women's golf, and track & field.

Smith is a 1991 graduate of Clemson, as he received his degree in social science secondary education. He is a member of the Athletic Equipment Managers Association and is the District III director. Smith was also named Equipment Manager-of-the-Year for District III in 2006-07.

He is married to the former Kim Teel. The couple has a son, Andrue Christopher, and a daughter, Lauryn Louise.

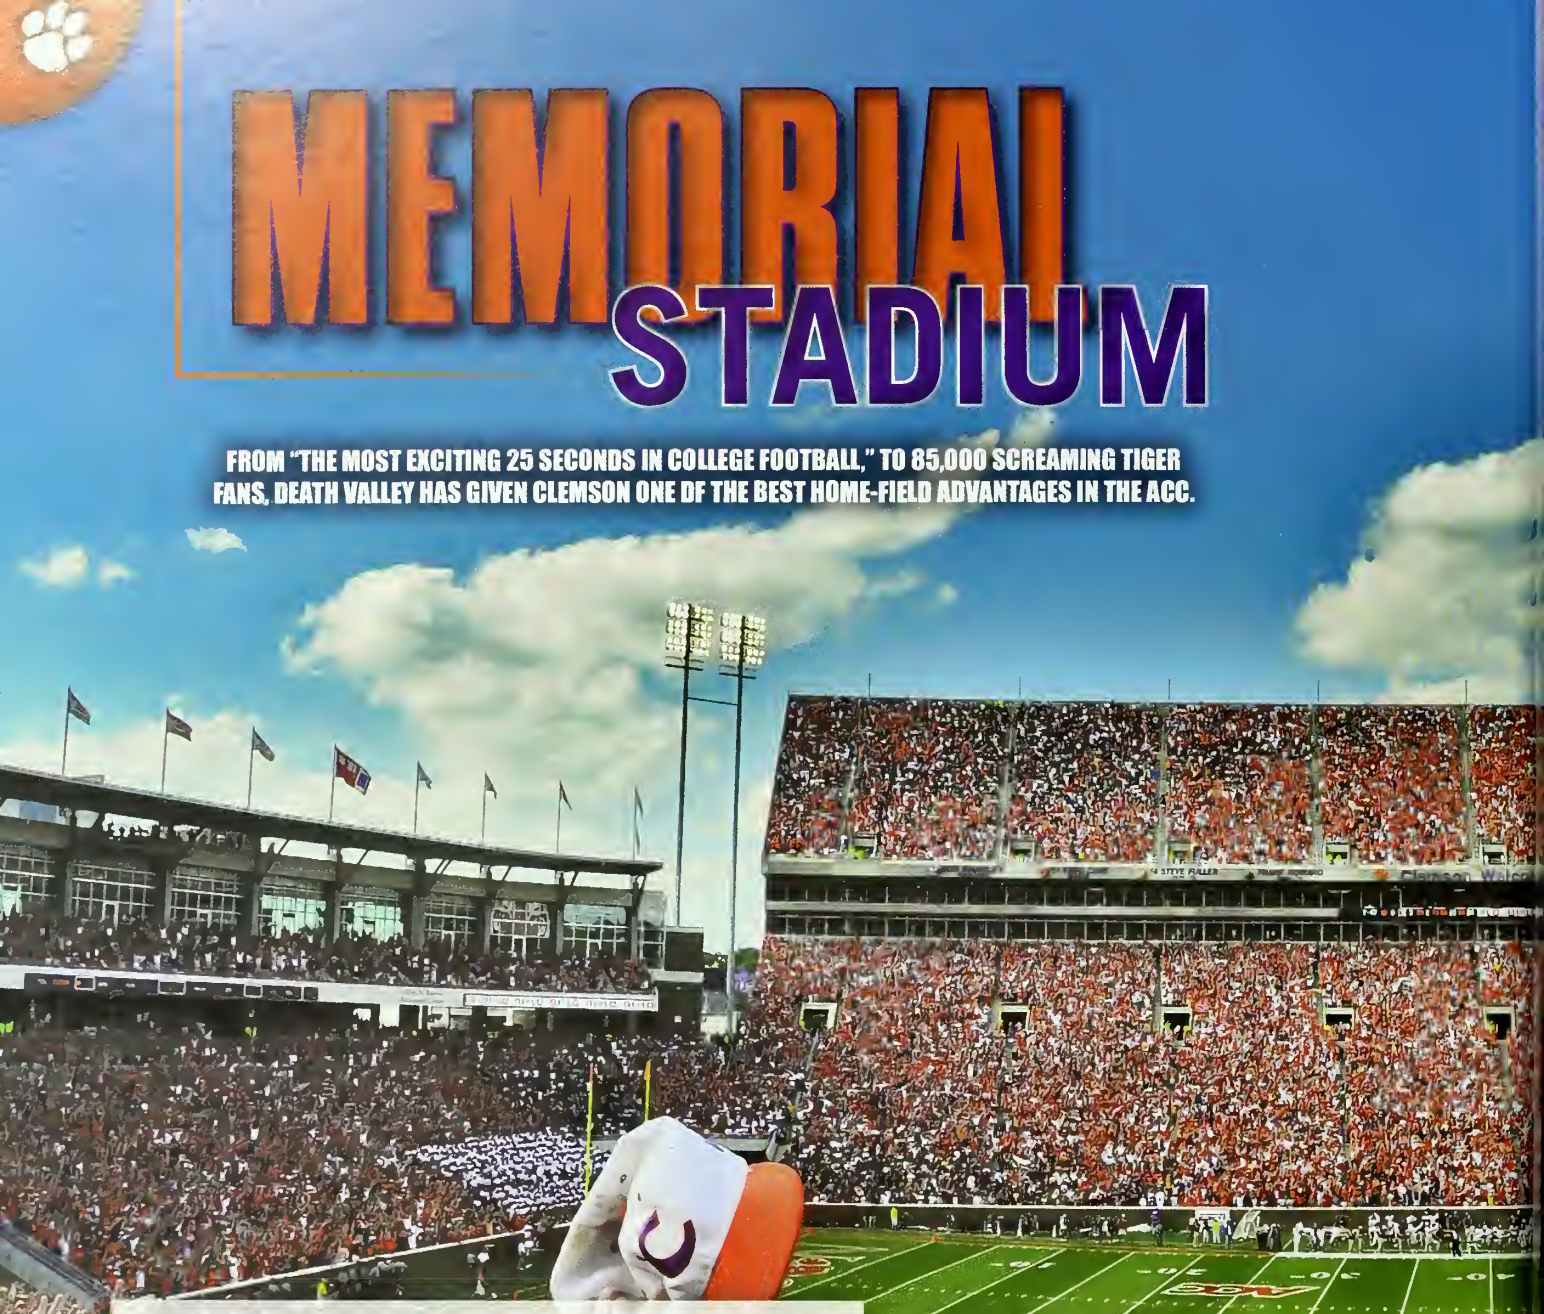
MEMORIAL STADIUM

FROM "THE MOST EXCITING 25 SECONDS IN COLLEGE FOOTBALL," TO 85,000 SCREAMING TIGER FANS, DEATH VALLEY HAS GIVEN CLEMSON ONE OF THE BEST HOME-FIELD ADVANTAGES IN THE ACC.



What they're saying about... DEATH VALLEY

"Running down the Hill is still talked about everywhere I go. Players who played against Clemson when I was in college remember us running down the Hill and thinking we would gain some type of spirit on the field. The adrenalin rush was unbelievable for a Clemson player and quite a shock for the opponent on gameday."

Former Clemson All-American Jerry Butler

"I came here knowing it would be loud and Clemson would hit hard, but the noise was the biggest factor. I didn't concentrate as well because of it."

Herschel Walker after his only regular-season loss

"Howard's Rock has strange powers. When you rub it and run down the Hill, your adrenaline flows. It is the most emotional experience I have ever had."

All-American & six-time All-Pro Michael Dean Perry

"When Clemson players rub that Rock and run down the Hill, it's the most exciting 25 seconds in college football."

Brent Musburger, ABC Sports

"Death Valley really lives up to its image. I was impressed with this stadium when you put over 80,000 people in there, it's like they are on top of you. I'd hate to be whoever comes here to play Clemson."

San Francisco quarterback Steve Young

"Florida was loud in the swamp. But the loudest, not only stadium, but the loudest place I've ever been around in my life was Death Valley. I was yelling at the top of my lungs and I couldn't hear what I was saying. That place was unreal in how loud it was. I don't think I will ever be in a louder place."

Florida State quarterback Chris Rix, 2001

"In 2005, Memorial Stadium, commonly known as 'Death Valley,' reached an astounding 126 decibels when a packed crowd saw Charles Bennett's sack of Kyle Wright in the Tigers' game against Miami (FL). This level easily surpassed the old record of 121 decibels set by Louisiana State fans in Tiger Stadium, which holds nearly 11,000 more fans."

RealFootball365.com

"The game when I was a sophomore (in 2005) stands out for me. What an awesome place that is to play. I'll never forget that atmosphere, and I know for a fact I've never seen so much orange in one place. If you've never been there, going out on the field for the first time at Clemson is incredible."

Boston College quarterback Matt Ryan, 2007

"We go to a lot of great venues for college football, but this doesn't take a back seat to any place. In terms of the atmosphere, stadium, noise, and facilities, this is a special place on a Saturday night."

ESPN commentator Todd Blackledge, 2009

Clemson's Memorial Stadium has been held in high esteem for many years. Whether it be players from the 1940s and 1950s, opposing players from the 1970s and 1980s, or even professional players in the 1990s, the ambiance of this special setting is what college football is all about. And in 2012, BleacherReport.com rated Memorial Stadium as the best stadium in the country.

The storied edifice added to its legend when the first meeting of father and son coaches (Bowden Bowl I) took place before a record crowd of 86,092 fans in 1999. Clemson has been in the top 20 in the nation in average attendance 31 straight years. A crowd has exceeded 80,000 fans 60 times since 1983. In 2011, Clemson was 17th in the nation in average home attendance.

The legend was further enhanced in 2011 when the Tigers had a perfect 7-0 record at home and recorded victories over defending National Champion Auburn and #11 Florida State on consecutive weekends. Defending National Champions are 0-3 all-time at Memorial Stadium.

The facility's mystique is derived from its many traditions, which date to its opening in 1942, the legendary games and players, and Clemson's corresponding rate of success. The Tigers have won 263 games in 70 years and have won over 72 percent of the contests (263-99-7).

The stadium has definitely been good to the Tigers, but it was constructed against the advice of at least one coach. Before Head Coach Jess Neely left for Rice after the 1939 season, he gave Clemson a message.

"Don't ever let them talk you into building a big stadium," he said. "Put about 10,000 seats behind the YMCA. That's all you'll ever need."

Instead of following Neely's advice, however, Clemson officials decided to build the new stadium in a valley on the western part of campus. The place took some clearing, as there were many trees, but luckily there were no hedges.

The crews went to work, clearing, cutting, pouring, and forming. On September 19, 1942, Memorial Stadium opened with Clemson defeating Presbyterian College 32-13. Those 20,000 seats installed for the opener would soon grow.

Howard said that on the day of the stadium's first game, "the gates were hung at 1:00 and we played at 2:00." But that would be all of the construction for awhile. Then in 1958, 18,000 sideline seats were added, and in 1960, 5,658 west endzone seats were added in response to increasing attendance. With the large east endzone ("Green Grass" section), this expansion increased capacity to 53,000.

Later, upper decks were added to each side of Memorial Stadium as crowds swelled - the first in 1978 and the second in 1983. It increased capacity to over 80,000, which makes it one of the nation's largest on-campus stadiums. In 2006, the WestZone was added, an area that contains locker rooms and a luxury club level that holds over 1,000 seats.

Through the years, Memorial Stadium has become known as "Death Valley." It was tagged by the late Presbyterian College Coach Lonnie McMillian in the late 1940s. After bringing his teams to Clemson for years and getting whipped, he said the place was like "Death Valley." A few years later, the name stuck.

In 1974, the playing surface was named Frank Howard Field for the legendary coach, because of his long service and dedication to Clemson University.

Luckily, it wasn't built behind the YMCA.

RUBBING

HOWARD'S ROCK

RUNNING DOWN

THE HILL

What has been described as "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football" from a color and pageantry standpoint actually started out as a matter-of-fact entrance, mainly because of necessity. The first 20,000 seats in Memorial Stadium were built and ready for use before the 1942 season, less than a year after Pearl Harbor was bombed and the United States was drawn into World War II. The shortest entry into Memorial Stadium was a short walk down Williamson Road from Fike Fieldhouse's dressing rooms to a gate at the top of the Hill, located behind the east endzone. There were no dressing facilities inside the west endzone of Memorial Stadium...there was only a giant clock, where the hands turned, and a scoreboard that was operated by hand.

The team would dress in Fike Fieldhouse, walk down Williamson Road, come in the gate underneath where the scoreboard now stands, and jog down the Hill for its warmup exercises. There was no fanfare, no cannon shot fired, no Tiger Paw flag, no "Tiger Rag" played...just the team making its entrance and lining up to do the side-straddle hop. That is pretty much the way things went for the next 25 years.

Either in 1964 or 1965, S.C. Jones, a member of the class of 1919, made a trip to California. He stopped at a spot in Death Valley, CA and picked up a white flint rock. He presented it to Head Coach Frank Howard as being from Death Valley, California to Death Valley, South Carolina.

The rock laid on the floor in Howard's office in Fike Fieldhouse for years. One day, he was cleaning up his office and told Gene Willimon, who was executive secretary of IPTAY, to "take this rock and throw it over the fence or out in the ditch...do something with it, but get it out of my office!"

Willimon did not think that was the way a rock should be treated. After all, it had been brought 2,200 miles by a very sincere Tiger fan.

By the mid-1960s, Memorial Stadium was living up to its moniker ("Death Valley") because of the number of Tiger wins that had been recorded there. Actually, the name was first used by Lonnie McMillian, head coach at Presbyterian College during the 1940s.

McMillian and the other Blue Hose coaches before him used to open each season by playing at Clemson. Seldom scoring (24 shutouts in 39 games) and with only three wins and four ties to show for it, his teams were getting "killed" by the Tigers regularly. In 1948, McMillian made the comment to the press that he was taking his team to play Clemson in "Death Valley."

An occasional reference to Memorial Stadium by that name could be heard for the next four years, but when Howard started calling it "Death Valley" during the 1950s, the name took off like wildfire. Clemson celebrated its 70th year in the "Valley" in the 2011 season with a perfect 7-0 home record.

But getting back to Howard's Rock.

The Rock was mounted on a pedestal at the top of the Hill on the east side of the stadium. It was unveiled on September 24, 1966 when Clemson played Virginia. The Tigers were down 18 points with 17 minutes left and came back to win 40-35 on a 75-yard pass from Jimmy Addison to Jacky Jackson in the fourth quarter. That was quite a debut for the Rock.

The team members started rubbing the Rock prior to running down the Hill on September 23, 1967, a day when Clemson defeated Wake Forest by a score of 23-6.

Prior to running down the Hill that day, Howard told his players, "If you're going to give me 110 percent, you can rub that Rock. If you're not, keep your filthy hands off it."

Howard told of the incident during the following day on his television show, and the story became legend.

When Hootie Ingram succeeded Howard as head coach prior to the 1970 campaign, Ingram decided that the team would make its final entrance on the field out of the dressing room in the west endzone. In all home games during the 1970 and 1971 seasons and the first four games of 1972 when the Tigers did not run down the Hill, their combined record was 6-9.

The team decided it wanted to come down the Hill once prior to the South Carolina contest during the 1972 season. The result, in a cold, freezing rain, was a 7-6 victory when Jimmy Williamson knocked down a two-point conversion attempt, which preserved the narrow win.

The Tigers have made the entrance for every home game since 1942, except for the years mentioned above and the first game of 1973 (353 times entering 2012).

After final warmups, the team gathers back in its dressing room under the west endzone stands for its final game instructions. Approximately 10 minutes prior to kickoff, the team boards three buses, rides around behind the north stands to the east endzone, and disembarks to the top of the Hill behind Howard's Rock.

At the appointed time, the cannon booms, and led by a giant Tiger Paw flag, the band forms two lines for the team to run between and strikes up "Tiger Rag"...the frenzy starts in all sincerity and usually lasts for three hours.

It is a tradition that has inspired Clemson players for many years.

FOR SEVERAL SEASONS, CONSTRUCTION HAS DOMINATED THE LANDSCAPE ON THE WEST SIDE OF MEMORIAL STADIUM. AS TIME PASSED, ATHLETIC OFFICIALS INSISTED THAT WESTZONE WOULD BE ONE OF THE FINEST FOOTBALL FACILITIES IN THE COUNTRY. TIGER FANS CAN SEE FIRST-HAND THAT THOSE ASSURANCES WERE ACCURATE. ADDITIONAL PHASES ARE PLANNED FOR FUTURE YEARS TO HELP COMPLETE ATHLETIC DIRECTOR TERRY DON PHILLIPS' VISION OF THE WESTZONE COMPLEX.

RECRUITING IS THE LIFEBLOOD OF ANY FOOTBALL PROGRAM. CLEMSON'S RECENT RECRUITING SUCCESS IS A DIRECT RESULT OF THE STATE-OF-THE-ART WESTZONE, WHICH HOUSES ALL OF THE TIGERS' FOOTBALL OPERATIONS.

MEMORIAL STADIUM'S FRONT DOOR

The everyday activities for the football program moved to Memorial Stadium on July 1, 2009. Tiger coaches moved into new offices in the WestZone of Memorial Stadium that day. A month later, the team made the locker room in Death Valley its full-time facility.

Additionally, a new equipment facility, athletic training facility, strength training facility, and training table ("The Paw") opened with all the modern conveniences of an NFL franchise's facility.

The new facility is 150,000 square feet, which adds almost 60,000 square feet to previous facilities in the Jervey Athletic Center. It includes a two-floor strength training facility that is 14,000 square feet, among the largest dedicated solely for football in the nation.

"Our program's motto since I became head coach is 'All-In'," said Head Coach Dabo Swinney. "This facility shows any Clemson football player, recruit, or supporter that our University is 'All-In' with this program. The facility is among the best in the nation and allows our student-athletes to develop and become the best they can be."

The equipment room was expanded to include, among other items, new offices and a new laundry room that encompasses approximately 6,000 square feet of space. The football staff offices and meeting rooms are composed of approximately 4,000 square feet of existing space and more than 18,000 square feet of new space.

The facility includes offices for the head coach, assistant coaches, and support staff along with position meeting rooms and a 150-seat auditorium with a sloped floor and theater seating.

The training room, located on the north side of the home team's locker room, was expanded to include a hydrotherapy room, new offices, and examination rooms. The training room occupies about 6,200 square feet of space as well.

The level-three concourse was expanded with the addition of the football offices. This space, the roof of the new football offices, is utilized for gameday marketing activities and to provide fans additional space to gather inside the stadium.

In 2012, 8,000 square feet of enclosed space was added on second level, which houses "The Paw."

Former Clemson running back James Davis, the 2005 ACC Rookie-of-the-Year, stated that one of the biggest contributing factors in deciding on Clemson was the University's commitment to upgrading facilities. "Does Clemson want to be a championship program?" asked Davis when he was considering Clemson. "The WestZone (initiative) showed me that it does!"

Building success requires building for success. While the WestZone is located in Memorial Stadium, the completed project provides resources for Clemson's total sports program, permitting all Tiger teams and athletes to compete with the nation's best.

Moving all football operations to the WestZone has opened up space in the Jervey and McFadden buildings for the other 18 intercollegiate sports to improve their facilities for recruiting and have more office, training, conditioning, and sports medicine space. This has greatly enhanced the overall performance, both on and off the field, for all 19 sports.

A look to Clemson's athletic history shows the importance infrastructure enhancements have on the football program. The following chart summarizes the relationship.

Infrastructure Improvement	3-to-6 Years Later
1934, Formation of IPTAY	1939, 9-1, first bowl
1942, Memorial Stadium opening	1948, 11-0, top 15 ranking
1953, Joined ACC	1958, Sugar Bowl
1973, Built Jervey Athletic Center	1978, 11-1, #6 ranking
1978, Built south upper deck	1981, National Champions
1983, Built north upper deck	1986-88, ACC Champions
2009, Completion of WestZone Phases I,II

STRENGTH & CONDITIONING

A significant aspect of Phase II of the WestZone project at Memorial Stadium was the construction of a new strength training facility on the first floor that is adjacent to the Clemson locker room and the Frank Howard Field playing surface.

For the first time, there is a strength training facility exclusively for the development of the Clemson football team. Director of Football Strength & Conditioning Joey Batson, who is in his 16th season at Clemson, makes sure that all Tiger gridders are ready to compete against the top teams in the nation. In his first 15 years in Tigertown, Clemson has played in 13 bowl games and he has coached 22 strength All-Americans on the gridiron.

It is the fourth major facilities construction since Batson joined the Tiger football program, an example of his desire to keep Clemson at the forefront of strength training.

The new facility has the best in all strength training equipment, not to mention the existence of a new sound system and nine new flat-screen televisions that give Tiger football players a pleasant atmosphere to accomplish the most strenuous work.

The strength training facility actually has two floors. The first has all the free-weight equipment, including a dumbbell area, and the second has cardio-equipment.

Batson has a staff of four assistants working full-time with the football squad. Joining Batson are veteran Strength Coaches Larry Greenlee and Paul Hogan along with assistants Brandon Mahon and Chris Shatley. In 2012, Greenlee was named a Master Strength Coach.

JOEY BATSON

Director of Football Strength & Conditioning

- 16th Season at Clemson
- Newberry '85
- Born June 22, 1961

Joey Batson is in his 27th year as a strength & conditioning coach at the collegiate level and 16th year as director of football strength & conditioning at Clemson. Batson, who played a big role in Clemson winning the ACC title for the first time in 20 years in 2011, has served as a head strength & conditioning coach 23 of his 27 years.

Batson was named master strength & conditioning coach by the Collegiate Strength & Conditioning Coaches Association (CSCCA) in 2009. This honor is the highest given in the strength & conditioning profession.

Batson has had a strong impact on the Clemson program since he became director in 1997. He has had much to do with the success of the football program, helping the Tigers to 13 bowl games and six top-25 final rankings. While at Clemson, he has worked for three head football coaches and has had a tremendous impact throughout the state at many notable high school programs.

Not only does Batson bring professional experience to the position at Clemson, he brings experience as a football player at the collegiate level. The Travelers Rest, SC native was a tight end at The Citadel in 1979 before transferring to Newberry, where he was a two-year letterman and team co-captain during his senior season.

Batson earned his bachelor of arts degree in physical education from Newberry in 1985 and his master's degree in education from Clemson in 1988.

Batson is married to the former Susan Malone of Greenville, SC. The couple has two sons, Michael and Benjamin.

UNIVERSITY PROFILE

Since the day of its creation (March 7, 1887), N.C. State has been moving forward.

It moved forward in 1889, when the first class of 72 students enrolled. A clear mission propelled the land-grant college to open the doors of higher education to all of North Carolina and to transform the state by developing and dispersing an understanding of agricultural and mechanical sciences.

And N.C. State still moves forward today. With more than 34,000 students and nearly 8,000 faculty and staff, North Carolina State University is a comprehensive university known for its leadership in education and research, and globally recognized for its science, technology, engineering, and mathematics leadership.

N.C. State students, faculty, and staff are focused. As one of the leading land-grant institutions, N.C. State is committed to playing an active and vital role in improving the quality of life for the citizens of North Carolina, the nation, and the world.

How? Researchers across the university and Centennial Campus are deeply engaged in making new, application-driven discoveries. As a major research university, N.C. State has the people, from undergraduate and graduate students to faculty, and the responsibility to advance knowledge, transfer technology, and discover and develop innovations that solve some of the world's most pressing problems.

And we are. N.C. State's research expenditures are approaching more than $325 million annually, with almost 70 percent of faculty engaged in sponsored research and 2,500 graduate students supported by research grants. N.C. State is ranked #3 among all public universities (without medical schools) in industry-sponsored research expenditures.

VICKERY HALL

CLEMSON'S INNOVATIVE & IMITATED VICKERY HALL WAS THE FIRST FACILITY IN THE COUNTRY CONSTRUCTED SOLELY TO PROVIDE ACADEMIC SUPPORT TO STUDENT-ATHLETES. TODAY, THE STATE-OF-THE-ART FACILITY & 17 STAFF MEMBERS PROVIDE A HOLISTIC, EDUCATIONAL EXPERIENCE BY INSPIRING AN ENVIRONMENT OF RESPECT, INTEGRITY, & EXCELLENCE.

Since its inception in 1991, the Student-Athlete Enrichment Programs have provided Clemson student-athletes a continued commitment to excellence. Our approach is to address the total student-athlete, and we are committed to coaching our student-athletes to success in the academic, personal growth, career, and community service arenas.

As an original member of the NCAA CHAMPS/Life Skills Program, we provide opportunities and services to address the changing needs and skills of student-athletes during college and after graduation. This program was selected for the FBS Athletic Director's Association "Program of Excellence" Award, a lifetime award recognizing CHAMPS/Life Skills excellence.

Clemson's commitment to provide its student-athletes with the best facilities is evident in many ways. Vickery Hall, located in the heart of Clemson's campus, opened its doors in 1991 as the first facility in the country constructed solely to provide academic support to student-athletes. The two-story, 27,000 square-foot building is open all day and into the evening hours to accommodate Clemson student-athletes' extended schedules.

Vickery Hall programs are dedicated to providing a holistic, educational experience by inspiring an environment of respect, integrity, and excellence. Through these services, Vickery Hall and the staff guides and encourages each individual to reach his or her full potential as a student, athlete, and citizen.

Vickery Hall is certified (as one of only 19 programs in the country to date) by the National Association of Academic Advisors for Athletics. The tutor and mentor programs are among only three athletic academic programs in the country certified at the highest level by the College Reading & Learning Association.

Academic Commitment

Clemson student-athletes posted a school-record 2.99 GPA for the 2012 spring semester according to data released by the Office of Institutional Research & Planning. Clemson's 15 athletic programs had 228 student-athletes named to the academic honor roll, including 111 on the Dean's List and 43 on the President's List (4.0 GPA).

Seven programs posted at least a 3.0 GPA and four others were at 2.93 or better. It was the first time that 11 of the 15 programs had a GPA of at least 2.93.

The football program had a 2.61 GPA, just below the record of 2.63 set in the spring of 2008. Thirty-four team members were named to the academic honor roll, including AP First-Team All-American Sammy Watkins. The freshman wideout became the first Tiger to earn AP First-Team All-America honors and be on the academic honor roll in the same year since David Treadwell in 1987-88.

Stephone Anthony, Xavier Brewer, Jaron Brown, Dalton Freeman, Rashard Hall, and Dawson Zimmerman were other 2011 starters named to the academic honor roll. Zimmerman, who received the Weaver-James-Corrigan Award, had a 4.0 GPA and was inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society.

The women's swimming program had a 3.62 GPA for the spring semester, a team best and the second best on record for any Clemson athletic team. Twenty-four team members had at least a 3.0 GPA, including 7 on the Dean's List. Two (Kerry McLaughlin, Maddie Tarantolo) were inducted into the Phi Beta Kappa Honor Society.

The men's golf team had a 3.23 GPA, its highest on record. The Tigers had eight members on the academic honor roll, the most since the spring of 2003. Other athletic programs that posted a 3.0 GPA or better during the spring semester were rowing, men's soccer, women's soccer, men's tennis, and women's track & field.

Sixty-one student-athletes graduated from Clemson in May of 2012, including 12 members of Clemson's 2011 ACC Championship football team. Eighteen of the 20 seniors on that team already have their degrees.

APR Scores

All 19 of Clemson's programs scored above the 925 APR threshold and 16 were above 970 according to data released by the NCAA.

The men's golf team had the highest among the 19 programs with a perfect 1,000 score, the sixth time in the last eight years the program has had a perfect score under Head Coach Larry Penley.

The football team had a 983 APR score, the seventh-best score in the nation among FBS schools. It was the second-best mark in the nation among schools who finished the 2011 season in the AP poll. Only Boise State was better among the ranked schools with a 989 mark.

The NCAA released data that was coach-specific for the four-year period. Dabo Swinney had a 991 score, fifth best in the nation among active coaches and far above the national average of 948. It was also best in the ACC.

Clemson's women's soccer (992), volleyball (989), men's tennis (988), women's cross country (985), and baseball (980) teams also scored at 980 or better.

Athletic Commitment

Clemson won three ACC Championships in the 2011-12 academic year, one in football and two in women's track & field.

The football team broke a 20-year drought with its conference championship after defeating #3 Virginia Tech in the ACC Championship Game. The team finished ranked in the top 25 and had a school-record four wins over top-25 teams.

The women's track & field program swept the ACC indoor and outdoor championships for the third straight year, giving the program six consecutive team titles.

Six programs finished the 2011-12 season with a top-25 ranking. The highest ranked team to end the season was women's track & field, which finished in a tie for fourth at the NCAA Outdoor Championships. The other sports that finished their respective seasons in the top 25 were football, men's golf, rowing, women's tennis, and women's indoor track & field.

Three Clemson student-athletes, Seth Broster (swimming), Alyssa Kulik (track), and Kim Ruck (track), were recipients of NCAA postgraduate scholarships. The Tiger athletic program had never previously had three award winners in the same academic year.

COMPLIANCE

Ask before you act!

This brief NCAA rules education is aimed at outlining basic rules to help potential students-athletes, parents, and boosters better understand the regulations. Clemson is committed to recruiting and conducting our athletic program with the highest level of integrity. If you have questions, contact Clemson's compliance services at (864) 656-1580, compliance-L@clemson.edu, or visit our website (ClemsonTigers.com).

Are You a Booster?

The NCAA definition of a "representative of athletics interest" generally encompasses most individuals who regularly attend Clemson sporting events (reminder - once a representative, always a representative). Specifically, a booster or "representative of athletics interests" is any individual, independent agency, corporate entity, or other organization that is presently or has ever:

- Participated in promoting the institution's athletic program (such as buying season tickets to sporting events).
- Assisted in providing benefits (such as summer employment) to enrolled student-athletes.
- Assisted or been requested by the department of athletics staff to assist in the recruitment of prospective student-athletes.
- Attended Clemson University.
- Contributed to the department of athletics or IPTAY.
- Participated in or been a member of IPTAY.
- Been otherwise involved in the Clemson University athletics program.

Ask Before You Act

Prospective student-athletes may...

- Identify outstanding potential student-athletes in your area and forward information, such as newspaper articles, to the coach of that sport at Clemson.
- Continue to establish friendships with friends and neighbors, even those with prospect-aged children. However, contact with those individuals for recruiting purposes is still prohibited.
- Attend, on your own initiative, events such as games and banquets where prospective student-athletes are present as long as you do not contact the prospect(s) or their family for recruiting purposes.
- Answer a call from a prospective student-athlete (you may not initiate the call) regarding only Clemson University in general, but not about Tiger athletics. Please promptly inform compliance services or the coach should this situation arise.
- Make donations to a high school if it is located in your community, the donation is not made at the request of Clemson or Clemson coaches, and the funds are distributed through established channels and not directed towards a specific student-athlete.

urrent student-athletes may...

- Continue to come out and support student-athletes at Clemson athletic events.
- Provide summer employment to student-athletes, but only if you contact Clemson's office of compliance services (compliance-L@clemson.edu) first and the student-athlete is compensated for work actually performed at a rate commensurate with the going rate in the locality for similar services.

What Every Booster Should Know

- Extra Benefit - Any special arrangement by a Clemson employee, booster (IPTAY member), or alum to provide a prospective or enrolled student-athlete or their families/friends with a benefit not permitted by NCAA legislation. Examples of prohibited benefits are (but not limited to):
  - Arranging employment for family and friends of the student-athlete.
  - Free or reduced housing agreements.
  - Gifts of money, awards, food/drinks, or other tangible items.
  - Loans of money or automobiles.
  - Professional services without charge or at a discount.
  - Promises of employment or loans following college graduation.
  - Providing transportation for the student-athlete or their friends and family.
  - Use of ATM, credit, or other types of gift cards.
- Institutional Control - A central principle of the NCAA by-laws. Institutional control requires that Clemson University conducts its intercollegiate athletics program in compliance with NCAA rules and regulations. This includes booster activities.
- Prospective Student-Athlete - A student, regardless of their athletic ability, who has started classes for the ninth grade or any student enrolled at another two or four-year institution.
- Recruiting - Any solicitation of a prospect or a prospect's family by Clemson's coaches or representatives of athletic interest for the purposes of securing the prospective student-athlete's ultimate enrollment and participation in athletics at Clemson. Only designated Clemson athletics department staff members may recruit.
- Student-Athlete - A student whose enrollment was solicited by a Clemson athletic department staff member or other representative of athletics interest with a goal of the student's ultimate participation in Clemson's athletics program. Student-athletes are not just those who were recruited or receive athletic scholarships, they are also those who participate in intercollegiate athletics.

Activities That Will Harm Prospective Student-Athletes

You may not...

- Contact (including phone calls, texts, email) or interact with a prospective student-athlete or family members for the purpose of persuading them to attend Clemson.
- Contact coaches, teachers, guidance counselors, or other school administrators in order to gain information on prospective student-athletes.
- Make contact with a prospective student-athlete or the prospect's family during official or unofficial visits.
- Provide any other extra benefits to a prospective student-athlete, family, friends, or their coaches.
- Provide prospective student-athletes or their family and friends with transportation or financial assistance.

Activities That Will Harm Current Student-Athletes

You may not...

- Generally provide benefits that are not available to other members of the Clemson student body.
- Provide extra benefits to student-athletes or their family and friends. Examples of prohibited benefits include (but not limited to):
  - Gifts of money, awards, food/drinks, occasional meals, or other tangible items.
  - Free or reduced housing agreements.
  - Loans of money or automobiles.
  - Providing transportation for the student-athlete or their family and friends.
  - Professional services without charge or at a discount.
  - Promises of employment or loans following college graduation.
  - Sending student-athletes items to be autographed and returned or using autographed items to raise funds for high schools.
  - Use of ATM, credit, or other types of gift cards.
  - Use the name/image of a current student-athlete to advertise, recommend, or promote products/services.

Consequences

Violations of these NCAA, ACC, and University policies can result in severe penalties, including:

- Disassociation - Clemson University may permanently disassociate itself with an athletic booster. You could lose the privilege of purchasing season tickets, the privilege of being an IPTAY member, or any other Clemson athletic-related benefit deemed appropriate.
- Harm to the Enrolled Student-Athlete - Violations can also result in the enrolled student-athlete or entire team being unable to compete for Clemson University.

See Something, Say Something

Please notify compliance services immediately of any potential violations involving Clemson University.

CUAD MISSION STATEMENT

The Department of Athletics offers nationally prominent athletic programs. Through a dedicated commitment to educational interests, a competitive athletic program, and integrity in all areas, the student athletes, coaches, and staff strive to bring credit and recognition to Clemson University.

The mission of the Athletic Department is to sponsor a broad-based athletic program that provides educational and athletic opportunities for young men and women to grow, develop, and serve the interests of Clemson University by complementing and enhancing its diversity and quality of life.

Furthermore, the Athletic Department seeks to be a source of pride for the citizens of the State of South Carolina and to be recognized as a nationally prominent program, through consistently high levels of performance and accomplishment in athletic competitions.

The Athletic Department strives to develop student-athletes academically and athletically with the total commitment of aiding their efforts to graduate from Clemson University and advance to careers that will enable them to be productive members of society.

The Athletic Department will act in an ethical and honest manner, dedicated to compliance with all Federal, State, NCAA, Conference, and University rules and regulations.

Less than an inch. The difference between off and on. For you, there is no in-between. Just today's grass to trim and game to watch. You don't think about everything that goes into powering that switch. Because we do.

IPTAY BOARD OF DIRECTORS

IPTAY CHAMPIONSHIPS BEGIN WITH SCHOLARSHIPS

The IPTAY Representative program continues to be one of the most important marketing tools available for the growth of the IPTAY Scholarship Fund. This group of nearly 700 men and women throughout the country volunteer their time to encourage those in their communities and in their circle of influence to join IPTAY on an annual basis and to support Clemson in all endeavors. Despite the economic challenges throughout the state and region, IPTAY had a successful 2012 campaign due to the tireless efforts of this group.

CHARLES DALTON
PRESIDENT
District I Director

The recruitment of new donors, those who have a potential for leadership gifts, and creating a link between Clemson and its constituents is the goal of each representative. With continued leadership provided by the IPTAY Board of Directors and our past presidents, the REP program will continue to be successful.

If you are interested in becoming an IPTAY representative, contact Jason Wilson via email at wilson@clemson.edu.

IPTAY.
Leading on and off the field.
HOWARD'S ROCK
FROM DEATH VALLEY, CA TO DEATH VALLEY CLEMSON, SC PRESENTED
IPTAY
THE WILL TO LEAD FOR CLEMSON ATHLETICS
Since 1934, IPTAY has led Clemson Athletics fundraising It was the will to provide lead ship in the athletic program a Clemson that first brought the IPTAY founders together to ra funds. And today, it is still IPTAY that provides the neede financial support for student- athletes to compete in the classroom as well as in their sport.
YOU CAN LEAD.
Whether you lead through an annual donation, a leadership gift or a legacy gift to IPTAY, y are playing a part in the future success of Clemson Athletics. And your leadership has never been more important.
As Clemson Athletics launches its $185 million campaign initiative as part of the University's overall Will to Lea campaign, it is time once agai for IPTAY to lead the way.
Find out how you can lead by calling 1-800-CLEMSON or online at clemsontigers.com iptay.

CLEMSON TIGER SPORTS NETWORK

PETE YANITY, WILL MERRITT, PATRICK SAPP, AND THE REST OF THE CTSN BROADCAST TEAM BRINGS LIVE RADIO BROADCASTS OF ALL TIGER FOOTBALL GAMES TO THE AIRWAVES ON ITS 25 NETWORK AFFILIATES.

The Clemson Tiger Sports Network supplies fans with a full day of broadcast every football Saturday. Each broadcast day has three programs, "Tiger Tailgate Show,""Game Day Broadcast," and "Fifth Quarter Show." A Tiger tradition since the 1970s, the "Tiger Tailgate Show" is a two-hour entertainment and interactive program. It is produced on the lawn of Littlejohn Coliseum at the corner closest to Memorial Stadium.

The program begins three hours prior to kickoff on gameday. Roy Philpott, David Stein, Dory Kidd, and Ben Milstead host the show. It is a popular gathering place. Interviews with former players, games, display items, and other exciting action are all a part of the show.

The game broadcast is anchored by Pete Yanity. The sports director at WSPA-TV (Ch. 7) in Spartanburg, SC took over in 2003 after the passing of Jim Phillips, who had been the longtime Voice of the Tigers since 1968. Yanity has been a part of the broadcast team since 2001 as the host of the pregame, halftime, and postgame shows, and as the sideline reporter during games. Yanity is also the voice of Tiger men's basketball and the host of the Dabo Swinney and Brad Brownell Television Shows.

Joining Yanity in the booth is former Tiger offensive lineman Will Merritt, who played for the Tigers from 1998-01. Merritt, in his 11th season with the network and 10th as the color commentator, was a starting offensive guard during the 2000 and 2001 seasons when he was named Second-Team All-ACC.

Patrick Sapp, who played quarterback and linebacker at Clemson from 1992-95, is in his sixth season as sideline commentator.

The gameday broadcast begins with the Dabo Swinney Pregame Show. Swinney meets with Sports Information Director Tim Bourret to provide Clemson fans with the latest lineup and strategy information. Yanity and Merritt also provide a last-minute scene-setter that includes the latest lineup and weather information.

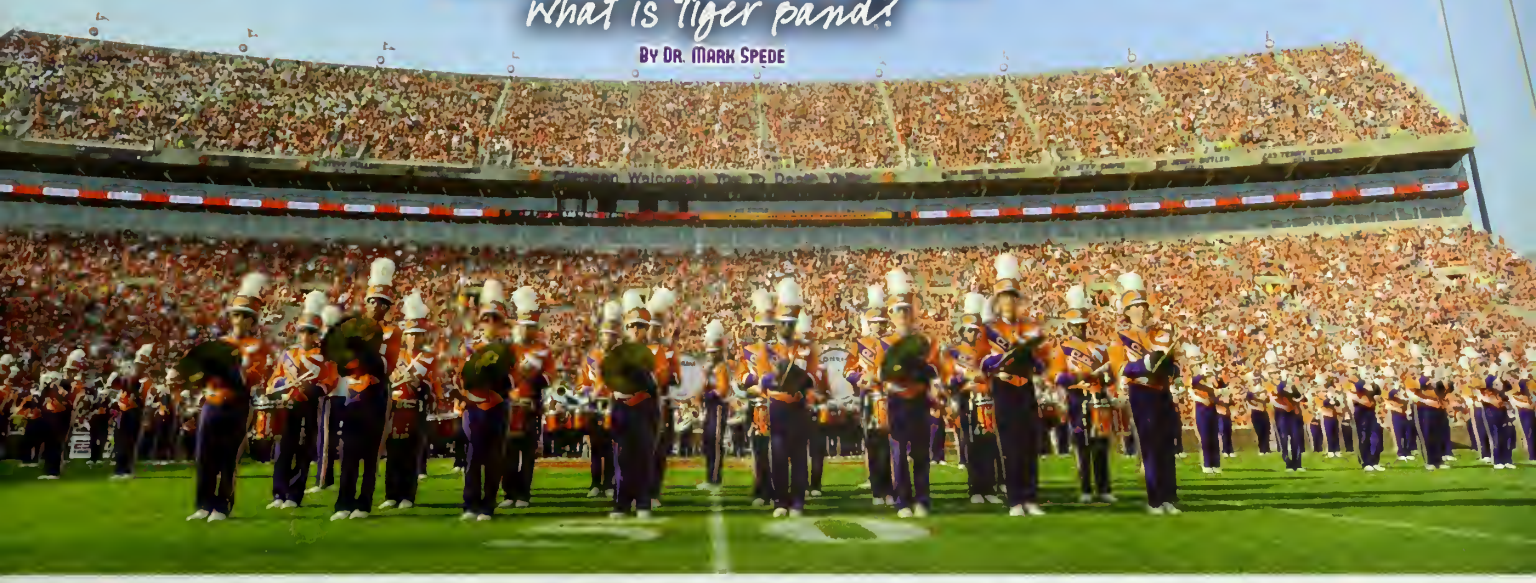
THE TIGER BAND COMMITMENT
CONTINUE THE COMMITMENT!
BUILD THE FUTURE NOW!

TIGER BAND

TIGER BAND
SHAKIN' THE SOUTHLAND

What is Tiger Band?

By Dr. Mark Spede



Can you imagine a football game at Clemson without "The Band That Shakes the Southland," Tiger Band? What would "the most exciting 25 seconds in college football" be like without "Sock It To 'Em" and "Tiger Rag?"

Tiger Band, an organization of 276 volunteer student musicians, is determined to support and excite Clemson through their love of music. Tiger Band is composed of future engineers, teachers, doctors, and accountants, all of whom step away from their major courses to find themselves on a beautifully-landscaped practice field between the Brooks Center for the Performing Arts and Perimeter Road. This is where the magic begins.

Before most students have completed packing for their move to Clemson's campus in August, Tiger Band has spent hours at band camp learning the music and marching drills for the season. Mornings and evenings of the band camp period are spent on the practice field, learning basic marching skills and preparing the pregame and first halftime show of the season.

As school starts, Monday, Wednesday, and Friday afternoons are devoted to the mastery of complicated music and drill. Tiger Band members practice rigorously during the entire semester, because the band rarely does the same show more than once, performing four or more different halftime shows in a single season.

And then "it's gameday, Tiger Band!" Gameday is the most exciting day to be in Tiger Band, but it is still a work day. For a noon kickoff, gameday begins at the practice field at 8:00 AM, when Tiger Band reviews the pregame and halftime shows.

At the conclusion of practice, around 9:15 AM, the Clemson University Tiger Band Association (CUTBA) provides breakfast. Inspection of uniforms is at 10:15 AM, and then the band walks to the amphitheater for the 90 Minutes Before Kickoff Concert. The concert happens before every home football game and is a great way to get excited for the game. Once the concert comes to an end, Tiger Band parades down Fort Hill Street to the stadium.

Upon entering the stadium, Tiger Band prepares for the most visible part of the day. During the video entrance in 80 seconds, the band goes from tunnel to endzone to endzone block to begin the Tiger Fanfare.

Band members then experience their largest adrenaline rush of the game. As the football players arrive, the band prepares itself to be a part of the "most exciting 25 seconds in college football." There is no experience that parallels standing on the field in Death Valley playing "Tiger Rag" as the cannon booms and the roar of the crowd engulfs the stadium.

At that point, the early morning practices and hours spent rehearsing in heat and cold all melt away in the realization that a Tiger Band member is an intricate part within the Clemson family. Afterwards, the band members continue their role in the Clemson family as they pump Death Valley full of musical spirit. All offensive first downs, defensive third downs, spectacular plays, and touchdowns are taken as an opportunity for Tiger Band to celebrate the football players and involve the crowd in the game.

Tiger Band strives to allow music to filter onto the Clemson family. Through performance of songs like "Tiger Rag," "Orange Bowl March," patriotic songs, and exciting halftimes, Tiger Band has worked its way into the heart of the Clemson community and all Tiger fans.

TODAY'S HALFTIME SHOW

The halftime show will feature our recruiting show, which was performed at the South Carolina State High School Marching Band Championships at Spring Valley High School. Called "Primary Colors," the show highlights the colors red, yellow, and blue.

The first, called "El Toro Rojo," conjures the sounds of a Spanish bullfight. Next is the Beatles "Here Comes the Sun" in a jazzy arrangement designed by Director Mark Spede.

Tiger Band closes with a great piece performed by the concert band by composer Frank Ticheli called "Blue Shades." We also welcome 75 high school seniors for our "Spend a Day With Tiger Band" as a part of our new-member recruiting.

ALMA MATER

Where the Blue Ridge yawns its greatness
Where the Tigers play
Here the sons of dear old Clemson
Reign supreme alway.

CHORUS

Dear old Clemson, we will triumph
And with all our might
That the Tigers' roar may echo
O'er the mountain height.

JUNIOR QUINYOTTA PETTAWAY IS ON THE REBOUND AS A LEADING POST PLAYER FOR THE LADY TIGER PROGRAM IN 2012-13.

QUINYOTTA PETTAWAY

BY JEFF KALLIN

During her first two seasons at Clemson, Head Coach Itoro Coleman has stressed the importance of patience and learning with her young players while she and her staff develop their young talent. Junior post player Quinyotta Pettaway is an example of the early returns that Coleman expects in order for the program to move up in an ultra-competitive ACC.

Pettaway's commitment to the program is paying off, as it was actually she who first took a chance on the Lady Tigers. She originally committed to play for the Lady Tigers with the previous staff on campus (Coleman's staff took over in March after Pettaway had been admitted to the program).

"Coming from a small town, going to an ACC school was something I couldn't pass up," recalled Pettaway. "After the staff change, I had doubts. I told my mom that it may be a sign to not go here.

"But the new coaching staff contacted me right away and let me know that they still wanted me. Especially Coach 'Yo' (Yolett McPhee-McCuin), who called me every week. In the end, I felt confident that this was the right decision."

This season, she is one of two juniors on a roster devoid of seniors and featuring 10 combined freshmen and sophomores. If Coleman is able to lead the Lady Tigers back to prominence, it will be on the back of players like Pettaway, who come to work every day to improve.

Pettaway played sparingly, but effectively in her freshman season in 2010-11, appearing in 24 games. She scored a total of 33 points and grabbed 50 rebounds, averages of 1.4 and 2.1 per game, respectively. Though the numbers were not all there, her prorated stats show that she was grabbing 9.8 rebounds per 40 minutes, the second-best rate on the squad.

She parlayed that into a starting role last season, unquestionably a breakout one for the Hertford, NC native.

"When I got here my freshman year, I didn't really have much of a basketball IQ," admitted Pettaway. "I was just tall. The person I credit most is Coach 'T' (Karleen Thompson). She sat down with me and told what I need to work on and that I have potential, and this is what I need to do."

She earned the team's Most Improved Player award in 2011-12 after averaging 9.1 points and 7.2 rebounds per game. She led the team in field-goal percentage (46.8) and scored double-figures 11 times. After blocking 13 shots as a freshman, the total jumped to 32 last season.

Pettaway has quietly built herself into a solid post player, using her tremendous athleticism and length on both ends of the floor. She is able to jump quickly and keep balls alive. She is also a strong rebounder, able to leap in traffic to pull down misses.

"Rebounding has picked up since my freshman year," said Pettaway. "I find that I want to get every rebound every game. If someone says my name, that's what they'll say...'she rebounds.'"

Even though she was only a sophomore, she was not worn down by league opponents. In fact, her scoring and rebounding averages improved to 9.5 and 7.4, respectively, in league play.

It was put on display last season when she went 8-10 from the floor and grabbed 12 rebounds at #21 North Carolina in Clemson's historic upset of the Tar Heels.

This season, she is looking at an even more expanded role as she becomes one of the post focal points of Coleman's dribble-drive offense.

"I like the offense this year," said Pettaway. "It gives everyone an opportunity to touch the ball, make moves, and penetrate to the basket. It also gives the posts a lot of chances to go one-on-one and create opportunities."

Lady Tiger basketball is about creating opportunities, making personal sacrifices for the greater good, and building a culture of success. If the Lady Tigers are able to have success during the next few seasons, it will be due to the foundation that Pettaway has helped set with her commitment to the program and improving herself.

"I want to be a leader," stated Pettaway. "I'm not that vocal...I like to lead with my actions. But since we're so young this year, I'm going to try to be more vocal and encourage my teammates."

MEN'S TENNIS SPOTLIGHT

Date of Birth	October 28, 1989

YANNICK MADEN

THE CLEMSON SENIOR HAS TEAMED UP WITH HIS BROTHER, DOMINIQUE, TO FORM A FORMIDABLE DUO FOR THE TIGERS.

BY KATHRYN ANDREOLI

Senior Yannick Maden made the decision to join the Clemson men's tennis program knowing it was centered around team values. Traveling across the globe from Stuttgart, Germany, Maden brought his intensity, work ethic, and athleticism to Clemson, making strides and rapid improvements throughout his collegiate career.

Prior to Clemson, Maden's accomplishments were impressive. He was the runner-up at both the International Bavarian Junior Open and the Under-18 German Championships in Stuttgart, which is home to the world-renowned Mercedes Cup, an ATP International tennis series that involves the best players in the world.

Pursuing an education along with competing at a high level of tennis in the United States appealed to Maden. Clemson, with its state-of-the-art athletic and academic facilities for student-athletes, along with a strong support system from both coaches and academic advisors created the perfect fit for Maden.

"In Germany, we don't have a big university system," said Maden. "When you go to school there, you basically have to stop playing tennis or do everything by yourself. Here in the U.S., it's a big business, where you have coaches and teammates, and its way better to compete at a high level."

Maden's younger brother, Dominique, also a member of the Tiger team. The Maden duo advanced to the final eight in the main draw of the All-American Tournament this fall, and was also a doubles finalists in the Southern Intercollegiate Championships held in Athens, GA. The brothers partnered to reach the Final Four of the ITA Carolina Regional Tournament in October. Both were named to the ACC Academic Honor Roll as well.

The elder Maden has broken new ground in his recent years at Clemson. After sitting out his freshman season, he finished the 2010-11 campaign with a 14-6 overall record, including a 7-4 mark in ACC competition. He also ended the year with an 8-3 record in home matches and a 5-3 ledger in away matches, playing most of his matches at #2 singles. He finished with a 6-3 record at #1 singles and a 9-11 record in doubles in the spring of 2011.

The first Tiger in two decades to reach the International Tennis Association's men's singles draw, Maden is an impact player for the Tigers. His competitive edge and rapid improvements make him a threat to his competitors.

He reached further success in the fall of 2011 when he advanced to the Final Four of the International Tennis Association Carolina Regional in Chapel Hill, NC after he was ranked #59 overall in the ITA preseason poll. He made another appearance in the fall of 2012, advancing to the third round and defeating some of the nation's highest-ranked foes.

The 6'1", 155-pound righthanded senior follows a rigorous daily training schedule.

"It starts at 7:45 AM, Monday-Wednesday-Friday when we go to the weightroom and lift," said Maden. "On Tuesdays and Thursdays, we go to the track and do conditioning and agility drills. Then we head over to the tennis courts and start around 9:30 and practice until about 11:30."

Intensive training throughout the fall will prepare the Tigers for a competitive spring season, where their main goals are set for team success.

"In the spring, we will try to improve as a team and make it to the NCAA Tournament."

The 2013 schedule includes non-conference home matches against Alabama, Louisville, William & Mary, and UNC Wilmington in the early spring. The Tigers will travel to Davidson for their season-opener on January 19.

Keep an eye out for the Maden brothers, as they continue to challenge their competitors this spring.

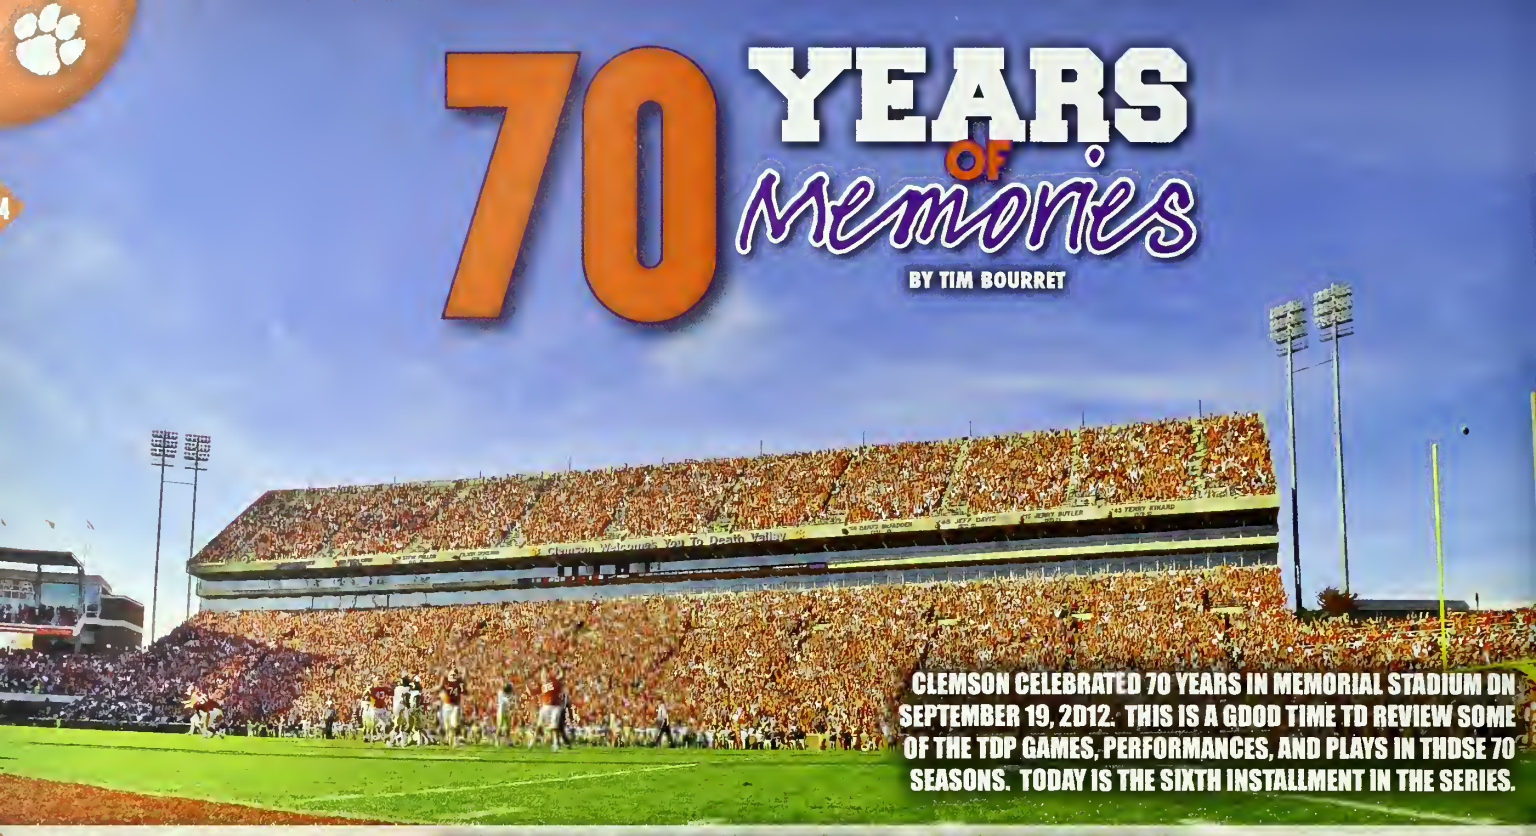
70 YEARS OF Memories

BY TIM BOURRET



CLEMSON CELEBRATED 70 YEARS IN MEMORIAL STADIUM ON SEPTEMBER 19, 2012. THIS IS A GOOD TIME TO REVIEW SOME OF THE TOP GAMES, PERFORMANCES, AND PLAYS IN THOSE 70 SEASONS. TODAY IS THE SIXTH INSTALLMENT IN THE SERIES.

MOST THRILLING FINISHES

IN MEMORIAL STADIUM HISTORY

CLEMSON 20, SOUTH CAROLINA 17
November 24, 1962

10

Seldom do you see a game decided on a sack, but that was the case in Clemson's 20-17 victory over South Carolina in 1962. Clemson drove from its 22 to the South Carolina seven on a 16-play drive that took 7:09 off the clock. Bill Rogers kicked a 24-yard field goal with 1:42 left to give Clemson a 20-17 lead.

South Carolina then drove to the Clemson 20 on a desperate final possession behind quarterback Dan Reeves, who would go on to playing success and coaching success in the NFL.

With the clock under 45 seconds and South Carolina facing a fourth-and-10 at the Clemson 20, Head Coach Marvin Bass decided to go for the victory (there was no overtime in those days). Reeves faded back to pass, but was tackled for a 13-yard loss by Clemson's Don Chuy and Billy Weaver. (It was not referred to as a sack in the typed play-by-play, because the term had not yet been invented.)

Clemson took over with 33 seconds left on its own 33 yard line and ran out the clock.

CLEMSON 20, VIRGINIA 20
October 12, 1991

This game came down to the last second and was decided by inches, or however long Wayne Simmons' fingernails were on this day.

Clemson and Virginia were in the thick of an ACC Championship race, and at season's end, it was apparent that these two teams were the best in the ACC in 1991.

The Cavaliers took a 17-7 lead in the first half. Clemson's only highlight was a 56-yard run by Ronald Williams, who was playing in his last game of his sophomore year before tearing an ACL in pregame warmups the following Saturday. Williams gained a career-high 185 yards on 20 carries in this game.

Clemson scored the last 10 points of the contest on a one-yard run by Rudy Harris and a 40-yard field goal by Nelson Welch with just 46 seconds left.

The Cavaliers had one last possession and hit some big plays to drive into Clemson territory. With one second left, Virginia's Michael Husted was called on to attempt a game-winning 34-yard field goal. However, Simmons got through up the middle and just deflected the attempt as the ball sailed wide, ending the game at 20-20.

CLEMSON 9, GEORGIA TECH 7
September 28, 1991

The #7 Clemson Tigers met #19 and defending National Champion Georgia Tech at Death Valley on September 28, 1991.

Jimy Lincoln had a 59-yard run to key an 84-yard touchdown drive for quarterback Shawn Jones, as Georgia Tech took a 7-0 lead. Clemson made it 7-3 on a 47-yard field goal by Nelson Welch on the last play of the first half.

There was no scoring in the third quarter. In fact, there was no more scoring until 2:06 remaining in the game. Clemson's running attack finally got going behind Ronald Williams (father of current Tiger DeShawn Williams), who had 102 yards on 20 carries. Williams gained all 46 yards on the drive that culminated in his two-yard touchdown run, giving the Tigers a 9-7 lead.

Clemson missed the extra point due to a bad snap, so Georgia Tech still could win the game with a field goal. The Yellow Jackets drove to the Clemson 27 in those final two minutes. Scott Sisson lined up for a potential game-winner from 44 yards with eight seconds left, but his attempt was wide right and the Tigers celebrated a 9-7 victory. It is the only game Clemson has won without scoring at least 10 points since 1977.

The victory established a then-school-record 11 straight wins at home.

CLEMSON 29, DUKE 20
November 8, 1997

Clemson moved the ball all day against Duke behind senior quarterback Nealon Greene, who passed for 273 yards. But the Tigers had a tough time finishing drives. Tony Horne had 119 receiving yards, including a 34-yard touchdown catch with 6:12 left that tied the score at 20-20.

The game went into overtime when Duke's Sims Lenhardt missed a 47-yard field goal that would have given the Blue Devils the lead with two minutes left. This was the first overtime game in Clemson history and the first overtime contest involving two ACC teams.

Clemson had the ball first and was limited to a 36-yard field goal by David Richardson, giving Clemson a 23-20 lead.

On Duke's first play of its overtime possession, the Blue Devils ran a flanker-around pass play, but Rahim Abdullah sacked Duke's Scottie Montgomery for a nine-yard loss.

After an incompletion on second down, Duke was faced with third-and-19. Lorenzo Bromell put pressure on Campbell, who tried to throw the ball across the field. But it was picked off by Abdullah, who raced 63 yards for the touchdown and the 29-20 Clemson victory, the only overtime game in ACC history that has been decided by more than eight points.

CLEMSON 30, VIRGINIA 27
October 11, 2003

This game also made our list of greatest player matchups. Clemson was led by sophomore quarterback Charlie Whitehurst and Virginia by current Houston Texan quarterback Matt Schaub, who was the reigning ACC Player-of-the-Year.

Clemson took a 10-0 lead at halftime behind a 52-yard run by Derrick Hamilton on an end-around play and an Aaron Hunt field goal. However, Virginia scored 17 straight points in the third quarter to take a 17-10 lead entering the fourth quarter.

Whitehurst then drove the Tigers to two scores in the fourth quarter to give them a 24-17 lead. Virginia drove back for a touchdown with 57 seconds left in regulation and the game went into overtime.

Clemson forced Virginia to settle for a field goal when Leroy Hill, who had four tackles for loss in the contest, stuffed Alvin Pearman at the line of scrimmage on third-and-one.

Duane Coleman made a key reception on a third-down play to keep Clemson's overtime drive alive, then Whitehurst lofted a four-yard touchdown pass to Kevin Youngblood that gave the Tigers the 30-27 walkoff victory.

CLEMSON 25, TEXAS A&M 24
September 3, 2005

Clemson opened the 2005 season on national television against a ranked team for the first time since 1959. Texas A&M, who had beaten the Tigers the previous year, came to Death Valley with a #17 ranking.

After a defensive-minded first quarter by both teams, Clemson scored 16 points in the second quarter on a Chansi Stuckey 47-yard punt return and three Jad Dean field goals. Clemson led 16-10 at halftime.

The Aggies took a 24-22 lead in the fourth quarter on a 31-yard touchdown pass by Reggie McNeal. The score was set up by a 49-yard run by McNeal, who had 100 rushing yards in the game.

After an exchange of punts, Clemson took over on its own 42 with 3:40 left in the game. Freshman James Davis, who had 101 rushing yards in his first game as a Tiger, carried the ball on eight consecutive plays to move the ball to the Aggie 25.

Dean came out to attempt a 42-yard field goal with six seconds left. The snap was offline, but holder Cole Chason did a great job of handling it and Dean made the field goal, his sixth of the game to set a school record.

CLEMSON 31, WAKE FOREST 28

This game would also fit a list of greatest comebacks in Death Valley by the Tigers. Clemson was coming off an open date and was a bit sluggish, especially in the third quarter when Jim Grobe's team scored 21 points and took a 28-14 lead with 5:32 left in the third quarter.

However, Clemson's offense returned to form, as Tajh Boyd connected with Brandon Ford for a seven-yard score and Jaron Brown with a 10-yarder. The second touchdown pass tied the score 28-28 with 5:27 left in the game.

Boyd, who passed for 343 yards in the game, led the Tigers on one final drive. Chandler Catanzaro, who had missed a 30-yard field goal on the previous possession, nailed a 43-yard field goal on the last play of the game to give the Tigers a 31-28 victory and the ACC Atlantic Division title. It is still the only time Clemson has won a game in Death Valley on the last play of regulation.

CLEMSON 33, WAKE FOREST 31
November 21, 1959

Some longtime Tiger fans may say this was the most exciting game in the history of Death Valley. It has a lot of the qualities you look for. Wake Forest was led by future NFL quarterback Norm Snead, while Tigers were led by senior Harvey White, who had taken Clemson to the Sugar Bowl the previous season.

The star of this game was George Usry. Players went both ways until 1964, and never has a Tiger had a more positive effect on the outcome from both sides of the ball in such a short period of time.

Wake Forest was leading the Tigers 31-27 in the fourtn quarter and had the ball at the Clemson 24 with under five minutes left. But on a third-and-four play, Usry intercepted and returned the ball 73 yards to the Wake Forest 10. Two plays later, Usry scored from the one (pictured above) to give the Tigers a 33-31 lead with 4:24 left.

The Deacons had one more drive, but Snead was intercepted by Harry Pavilack at midfield and the Tigers ran out the clock.

CLEMSON 21, GEORGIA 20
September 19, 1987

The most important safety in the history of Death Valley took place in Clemson's 21-20 victory over Georgia in 1987. In an era when the two schools played classic game after classic game in the 1980s, this was the final chapter of the era.

Georgia held a 20-16 lead in the fourth quarter when Clemson special teams player Chinedu Ohan combined with John Johnson to down a punt at the Georgia one.

On first down, Georgia quarterback James Jackson was stuffed in the middle of the line by Tony Stephens. On second down from the six-inch line, Jackson rolled to his left, but the pursuit of Clemson's defense was relentless. Jackson was first hit by James Lott and was then finished off by Gene Beasley and Vince Taylor. The safety cut Georgia's lead to 20-18.

On the ensuing drive, Clemson dominated the line of scrimmage, as Terry Allen and Wesley McFadden combined to gain 52 yards on six carries. Clemson drove to the Georgia five, and with two seconds left, David Treadwell kicked a 21-yard field goal to give the Tigers a 21-20 victory.

CLEMSON 16, SOUTH CAROLINA 14
November 18, 2000

Both Clemson (#16) and South Carolina (#25) were ranked in the top 25 entering this game on a cold day in Death Valley. South Carolina had taken a 14-13 lead in the final two minutes on a bizarre play. Derek Watson attempted to leap into the endzone for a Gamecock touchdown, but he was hit hard by linebacker Keith Adams. The ball bounced into the endzone, where it was recovered by Thomas Hill for a touchdown.

On the ensuing drive, Clemson was faced with a third-and-12 at its own 42. Woodrow Dantzler rolled to his left and hurled the ball down the right sidelines towards Rod Gardner, who was covered by several Gamecocks.

After considerable contact on the route between Gardner and Andre Goodman, Gardner made the catch at the eight. The play was good for 50 yards.

After Dantzler spiked the ball to stop the clock, Aaron Hunt came on to kick a 25-yard field goal with just three seconds left, giving the Tigers a 16-14 victory.

BRIAN DAWKINS

THE FORMER TIGER SAFETY (1992-95) HAD A DECORATED 16-YEAR NFL CAREER, INCLUDING 13 WITH THE PHILADELPHIA EAGLES. THE CITY OF BROTHERLY LOVE EMBRACED DAWKINS LIKE FEW BEFORE HIM, AND THERE IS GOOD REASON WHY.

BY TIM BOURRET

On September 30, 2012, Brian Dawkins became just the third former Clemson athlete to have his number retired by a professional sports franchise. On that night, the Philadelphia Eagles made his #20 just the eighth number to be hung in the rafters at their home stadium in the 80 years of Eagle football.

Dawkins, who starred at Clemson from 1992-95, joined former Tiger football player Dwight Clark, who had his #87 retired by the San Francisco 49ers, and former Tiger basketball player Larry Nance, who had his #22 retired by the Cleveland Cavaliers.

Having your number retired is just about the ultimate when it comes to professional sports. It does not happen very often.

First, you must have longevity with a franchise. There has to be a sense of loyalty, a connection between the fans and the player. Second, there has to be a unique list of accomplishments on a team and individual basis.

Dawkins fit both of those categories many times over in Philadelphia. When you go online to YouTube and call up his name, there is a long list of incredible highlights.

The Jacksonville, FL native played 13 years with the Eagles and was a part of four teams that played in the NFC Championship game and a Super Bowl. He played 183 games with the Eagles from 1996-08, including 182 as a starter. He made the Pro Bowl as an Eagle seven times and was All-Pro four times. He had 898 tackles, 21 sacks, and 34 interceptions as well.

Overall, Dawkins played 224 games (221 starts) in the NFL, including his final three years with the Denver Broncos. His 37 caused fumbles are more than twice as many as any other safety in NFL history. His nine Pro Bowls are sixth-most in NFL history among safeties. Four of the five players ahead of him are in the Pro Football Hall of Fame. He was also named to the NFL Team of the Decade of the 2000s and was named to the Eagles' 75-Year team.

When it came to loyalty and a connection between Philadelphia and Dawkins, he might be the most beloved living Eagle in the City of Brotherly Love.

[illegible] video of his jersey retirement is re[illegible]ing to see. It was passionate [illegible] the fans and from Dawkins' s[illegible]

[illegible] was long and loud. Da[illegible] from a printed, re-hea[illegible]d sp[illegible] just spoke from the heart [illegible] leading the crowd in the Eagles [illegible]

The best story written about Dawkins during the week of his jersey retirement was authored by a Mark Meany, a producer at WPVI-TV in Philadelphia.

He took us back to January 11, 2009, a day of celebration in Philadelphia, because the Eagles had just beaten the rival Giants on the road to advance to the NFC Championship game.

It was Meany's job to produce a post-game special on the game for his station, and Dawkins was to be his most important interview. The interview was to be done by Gary Papa, a television legend in Philadelphia who was dying of prostate cancer. (It would be the last game Papa covered.)

From here, it is best to use Meany's words to describe what took place.

Dowkins emerged from the locker room, borely oble to wolk, his foce cleorly reflecting the poin he wos in. He osked me where we were going to do the interview. I explained thot Gory wos woiting for him, but it wos o long wolk to the other side of the stodium. Thot wos os for os Gory could moke it before he needed to sit ond rest.

A quick discussion ensued between myself, Dowkins, ond Medio Relotions Monoger Ryon Nisson. It wos quickly determined thot Dowkins wos too hurt to moke the wolk. We would hove to concel the interview. Thot is, until I soid one simple thing to Dowkins..."Gory's in bod shope, he's hoving o reolly rough doy."

Dowkins looked me in the eye ond soid, "Let's go."

The wolk down the hollwoy through the bowels of Gionts Stodium took forever. Dowkins wos limping ond silent the entire woy. We finolly got to Gory, who wos sitting down ond still gothering his strength.

Dowkins wolked up to Gory ond helped him out of the choir.

Then the two embroced.

Both men, two of the toughest I've ever met, begon to sob in eoch other's orms. It went on for whot seemed like forever. I then noticed thot through the entire embroce, Dowkins wos whispering in Gory's eor.

I'm not sure thot whispering con be described os intense, but thot's whot this wos. Dowkins wos giving Gory o pep tolk, o pregome speech before o tough gome. It wos vintoge Dowkins.

That story tells you all you need to know about Dawkins. He was an All-American at Clemson who did much for the heritage of this school's football program. However, he has done far more for the program and the University with the way he has represented this school as a professional.

Dawkins retired as a player on April 23, but his positive impact on Clemson University and its football program will continue for many years. Especially in 2017, when he is eligible to be inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, OH.
